FROM THE PARISH PRIEST.

My dear Parishioners of Blisland, St Breward and Temple,

I remember a School Sermon being preached on November on "Fog, fireworks and famous men" and the latter were, of course,the Saints. The Saints, however, comprise men and women and I do not think that famous is quite the right adjective to describe them. They do not seek fame but are honoured because theyhave achieved sanctity. November 1st is All Saints Day a Feast which has an interesting history. In the Eastern Church, from the 1st century onwards, the Christian community of Antioch set aside a day on which to honour all the martyrs - those who died for their faith. At the beginning of the 9th century theFeast of All Saints was established at Rome and thereafter it was adopted throughout Christendom. November 2nd, All Souls Day, the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed, was established by St Odilo (who died in 1046) at Cluny and during the 11th century the feast spread throughout Western Christendom. It is proper that we should honour all God's Saints and pray for the repose of the souls of the departed.

The Saints are in heaven, the Soul's of the daparted are in paradise (a stage further that we are on the way to heaven) and we are still in the wilderness of the world living in right wild times. Life is made up of contrasts. There is good and evil. There are acts of violence and oppression and acts of kindness and compassion. There are joys and sorrows. As Christians of whatever Christian Denomination we must have faith, hope and love. The greatest of these is love. The simplest and, at the same time, the profoundest description of God is that He is Love. We must deepen our love for Him and for one another. Love never faileth. Many waters cannot quench love neither can floods drown it.

The end of November is the end of another Christian Year. December 1st is Advent Sunday the beginning of a new Christian Year. Looking back over the year which is drawing to a close we must thank God for all our blessings and ask His forgiveness for all our sins. Looking forward to the year which lies ahead we must resolve not only to deepen our love for God and for one another but also to continue to submit our wills to His Will for each one of us. We must pray for the unity of His Church, for the whole brotherhood of mankind, for the peace of the world and for all who suffer in body, mind and soul.

God Bless you and all whom you love,

EDWIN STARK.

NATURE TITBITS.

A very surprising sight. On September 16th I was driving from Blisland to St Breward in the rain. The two labradors were restless and I decided to give them a run at Delford Bridge. Just as we started along the river, going upstream, I saw, to my astonishment, a pair of shags standing one in front of the other, on the bank of the De Lank. They seemed remarkably unconcerned by my approach, but when the dogs gambolled towards them, they shook their heads and launched themselves into the air, flying in an unhurried way towards Bradford. They seemed to come down very soon and I started along the river hoping to get another sight of them, but the rain was getting heavier and rivulets penetrated my anorak and started tickling down my back, so I thought better of it. On my way back to the car I saw a heron.

Has any other reader encountered shags so far in land, or indeed, on the De Lank? It is surely most unusual and I wonder if this pair had somehow got diverted from the Camel. What could they find to eat up there? One was bigger than the other which is also odd as there is no difference in the size of the two sexes. Perhaps one was a youngster.

I wonder if any other reader saw this pair? R.L-S.

Letter to the Editor.

I read the Rector's Pastoral Letter in the Oct. edition with considerable interest, and there are three points on which I would comment. Before I do I think it would be as well to make my own position clear.

I was brought up in the faith of the Church of England as it used to be, and during the course of my peripatetic life I have supported the church of the parish in which I might find myself at any time with fair consistency. That is to say that I attended matins on most Sundays, put my pittance in the collection, joined the social gathering after the service, and that was that until the next Sunday. That makes me very much a run-of-the-mill parishioner. Not, very good, but, perhaps, not very bad either.

The Rector says in his letter that only 3.8% of the population attend church on a Sunday, and then goes on to say, "We must ask ourselves where we stand in our parishes". We know where we stand. Only about 3.8% of the population of Blisland attend church on Sunday - and the average age of the congregation is 68. The question the Rector does not pose is, 'Why do so few attend church, and why so few young? So, I will pose the question, and I will give my answer. It is this, the Church of England no longer seems to have any relevance to the lives of the vast majority of the ordinary people of this country. If that is true, How does the Church propose to remedy the situation?.

The Rector talks of wolves within. The wolves within are found in the General Synod. In Trades Unions they call them Activists, but wolves is a better term. The wolves hunt in several packs, each with a different aim, and by their existence they create diversity, and dissent, and that at a time when the Church, as never before, needs unity and the strangth that goes with it. The Church is in danger of tearing itself apart.

Synodical Government of the Church was introduced in 1970, and the fourth election to the General Synod has just taken place. I wonder how many of the people of our parishes knew that, and I even wonder how many knew that the General Synod existed. I am on the electoral roll of Blisland Church, but I didn't get a vote, and even if I had I would not know what my prefered candidate stood for. As the man said as he watched a train smash into the buffers at a terminal,"What a way to run a railway!"

I am a simple member of the church and no theologian, and as far as I am concerned the Faith of the Church of England is found in the bible, the prayer book, the Articles of Religion, and the catechism. Furthermore, it is enshrined in the law of the land. The Church of England is the Established Church with the Queen at it's head.

The Synod serves no useful purpose. As I have indicated, it is not democratic, and exists only as a forum for dissent and division. Not being an old institution there would be no great heartburnings if it were abolished - and it should be. The Church could then put the clock back fifty years, and start with a clean slate, and, one would hope, with a clean heart.

Look at the obverse of any coin of the realm. You will see an effigy of the Queen. Around the circumference is inscrib 'Elizabeth II. D.G.REG. F.D. ' "ELIZABETH II. BY THE GRACE OF GOD QUEEN. DEFENDER OF THE FAITH." I would say to every prelate, to every priest of the church, to every member of the General Synod, "Go thou and do likewise."

The Rector mentions the book "Rural Anglicanism" by Dr Leslie Francis. In his book Dr Francis refrains from drawing any conclusions from his study, but instead suggests a line of investigation for parishes to follow in determining their own success or failure. It would be interesting to hear the Rector's views on that.

Yours faithfully, H.C.Garstin, Lower Bradford..

ST BREWARD PARISH CHURCH.

Our New Granite Altar

What a joy it was on September 9th 1985 to see and hear our delightful Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Peter Mumford, who was making his first visit to St Breward to consecrate our very splendid new granite High Altar, which has been given by the Managers and Workmen of the granite quarries in the parish i.e. Hantergantick, De Lank & Tor Down, and the confirmation of six of our members.

It was also a great joy to have most of those men who gave, fashioned the materials into such a beautiful Altar, drew up the plans and fixed it, with us at the service. As the Bishop agreed "An Altar fit for a cathedral to have and be proud of".

It all started back in 1977, the year of the Diocesan Centenary, when Paul Hancock was our Vicar, that I suggested to him that we ought to have a granite High Altar, seeing we live in a village which derives much of its livelihood from the three granite quarries within it, and from which many famous works have been produced, to quote but a few:- the Eddystone Lighthouse, Tower Bridge, London Bridge, the new Post Office Building and the Commercial Union Office Block, all in London except of course, the Eddystone. See them if you get the chance. He thought it a very good idea and I'm sure he will be delighted with it, when he next visits while on holiday.

Next I had to go along to the quarries to see what they could do for us. First I went to see my good friend Vernon Williams at De Lank, the then Manager, who I am sorry to say, passed away before the job was completed: but I know he would have been delighted with the end product. That also goes for Dick Crowle with whom I had many discussions, he would have been most pleased as those lovely legs came from Hanter. What a good friend he was and also that of the Church.

That of course brings me to my visit to Hantergantick and another of my good friends, Dennis Champion, the Manager. Both Managers were very willing to see what could be done and asked me to get what was wanted on paper, so they could have a good idea what I was asking for. For this I had to get an architect, and who better I thought than Ian Bray, who came along & drew what I thought would be suitable for the church i.e. the legs to match the pillars of the church and what a grand job it has turned out to be.

After a bit of discussion with the Parochial Church Council the plans were sent to Truro to the Diocesan Committee which deals with these matters, for their scrutiny and hopefully their approval. By this time Paul Hancock had left us and moved to Mansfield, leaving us without a vicar for some time, and there was quite some delay in getting a reply from the Committee.

Conrad Sargisson came to us next in 1979 as vicar. He made inquiries as to what was happening to our plans & we were asked to provide another plan... after more delay we were asked to have a more detailed plan of the Chancel and Altar to see what it would look like and this is where Cliff Cheiseman came along & offered to do the necessary plans which were sent to Truro.

Once again we had a change of vicar - Conrad exchanged Benifices with our present vicar, Edwin Stark in 1983. We had now received permission to install the new altar and a faculty was requested in January 1984 and paid in September 1984. At last we were able to go to the quarries and say we've been given the O.K. Very fortunatly (for them) they were busy and unable to work for us so we had to wait. So I made some more visits to see how things were going. David Methven was by this time the Ma nager at De Lank and was very helpful. I had also seen Brian Nottle, Manager of Tor Down, to get a piece of granite from them, in the form of a plinth which would raise the Cross on the altar. As with all the others, my request was granted without hesitation.

The quarries were still very busy and in about May Dennis suggested that I get a firm date as to when the Bishop could come and dedicate the altar, and he would try and get it done by that date. Edwin then sets to work and eventually he got a fixed date for Sept 9th. Off I go to Dennis and David to give them the date. Dennis had quite a lot more work to do as he was providing the legs, but the chaps who were working on them gave their time after hours, in order to meet the date. The quarry holidays made things a bit more difficult, but by Sept 3rd the task had been completed and I was able to collect the legs from Hanter, and the Teague Bros. collected the table from De Lank, which had been completed in spite of the fact that I had given Albert Winn the wrong measurements re the dowel holes.

That evening the pieces arrived at church and after a bit of a struggle, they were put together by the Teague Bros, helped by Victor, Raymond, Robin and the ringers. The rest of the week we were very busy cleaning and getting the South Aisle made into the Lady Chapel so that our Communion Service could be held there on Sunday. It is now a very delightful part of the church. The new Madonna Blue frontal which was skilfully & beautifully made by Mona Brown, the materials were given by Joey. To complete the furnishings another rug was needed, which was purchased with money given by Jennifer Conchie, Dons Reynolds & Stephanie Cholmeley.

The great day had arrived and what a joy it was seeing our Church so beautifully decorated by Beryl Raplh and Vivienne Brown. To hear the bells, under our new Captain of the Tower Bill Hill, and to see the church full with nearly all the organisations of the village represented, parishioners, friends from Blisland and other parishes, visiting clergy and Churchwardens, and our Methodist friends.

The Service conducted by the Bishop was most inspiring and enhanced by the Confirmation of our five choir girls, Julie Davidson, Jennifer Carroll, Adrienne Conchie, Helen Flage & Joanne Vanderplank, also Adrienne's Mum, Jennifer. These six took their first communion at the new altar, with the Bishop, followed by members of the congregation. After the service the Bishop was photographed with the men who had made the altar possible, also the newly confirmed, clergy and churchwardens.

After this historic Service of Dedication we were treated to a delightful supper in the Village Hall, at which the Bishop & Mrs Mumford joined us, for which I say a big thanks to Mrs Crowle and friends of the Church. To commemorate his first visit to St Breward, the Bishop was presented with a lovely granite paperweight in the form of a Curling Stone, which had been given by David Methven.

A further presentation was made by the District Commissioner for Scouts of Warrants to Mr & Mrs Turner and Mrs Betty Hoskin.

ST BREWARD CHURCH HARVEST FESTIVAL.

Once again the Church was beautifully decorated with flowers and produce for our Festival Service, which this year co-incided with the feast of St Michael and All Angels.

It was lovely to see the children presenting their Gifts at the altar.

Harvest Service continued on Tuesday Oct 1st with a shortened Evensong again conducted by the Vicar. This was followed by a lovely supper, thanks to Sue Hutton & Friends, and auction of the gifts by auctioneer Cyril. Our numbers were rather small but their response was great as the amount raised was £137. Our thanks to everyone who came, gave, and purchased to make this our Harvest Festival once more a most enjoyable event for all, especially the children for their help. They were lovely.

In conclusion, may I say a very Big THANK YOU to everyone who helped to make this Historic and Memorable day possible.

Thank you, and may God Bless you all.

AN APPRECIATION.

Dr & Mrs Turner retired to Blisland some 20 years ago, although 'retired' isn't quite correct as Dr Turner sat on National Health tribunals and did ship emergency work for some time. As committed Christians they sat on the P.C.C. and Dr Turner was a School Governor and Committee member of the Over 60's.

Advancing years and ill health made them decide to make a final move to Warwickshire to be near their daughter. We shall miss them as much as they miss us, and trust they will find much pleasure in their new abode.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES.

ST BREWARD.

We were only 14 in number for the first meeting of the Autumn but hopefully more members will get back into the habit of "third Tuesday is W.I.night". The result of the August disco now totals over £70 due to donations. We do hope to use the Community bus for ten or twelve members to go to Blisland for the Group Meeting, we found that going in a 'bunch' added greatly to our enjoyment of the evening. Mrs P Bridge will be the delegate to the Autumn Council Meeting with Mrs I Bate as a visitor; the resolution about child abuse and the "safe house" was a difficult one to vote on as it was not made clear what constituted a safe house in Australia. All agreed that this is a matter which needs a lot of attention from both government and public alike. Some of the forward details for our own Group Meeting in the spring were discussed, but the main problem is the availability of the Sunday School for 24th April!

The indoor bowls teams will have a second practise before the first round on October 19th.

A majority of the members present agreed that they would like to retain Denman College as a unique opportunity, albeit for the lucky few, to gain further knowledge in a chosen subject, but felt that spending ½ to £1 million above the £50,000 required to repair Denman would alter the atmosphere of 'going back to college'. Opinion was that if members wanted an ensuite bathroom etc they ought to book into a luxury hotel.

Many members already knew our speaker, Mrs Julyan, in her other roles in 'make and mend' but this time she told us about many odd moments during her many years in the WI.

The competition for a limerick was won by Mrs Bridge and Mrs Warne got the points for the flower of the month.

In November the speaker, Mr Shad, will talk about a trip on the Royal Yacht so please support this meeting on the 19th.

Anne Holmes.

Jonathon Steadall, producer of 'Wicked Lord' is to open the Sale of crafts etc at Loadebridge Town Hall at 10AM Friday 29th November. Open 10-6 pm Friday & 9.30-5.30 pm Sat. in aid of 'The John Betjeman Centre Appeal Fund.

BLISLAND.

Mr Tony Mills, our Speaker for September had a good audience for the talk on his archeological work at the Dachleh Oasis in Egypt. It was quite amazing that there are several villages situated at this one spot and over 30,000 inhabitants - quite destroying my illusion of a few palm trees, water and the odd nomadic tribe. The slides, graphic description and deep insight into the lives of people who lived thousands of years ago was so enthralling that the hours talk soon flashed by. Our ranks were swelled by the presence of Captain Hicks, and Mr Gurr and I do hope they found the subject as interesting as we did.

After a welcome cup of tea and refreshments supplied by Miss June Runnalls and Mrs Joyce Richards we were all brought back to reality with the business side of the evening. The County News, correspondence etc were discussed & the final arrangements made for the St Petrocs Group Meeting being held in our Village Hall. As we are the Hostesses we are responsible for the refreshments & the entertainment. For the latter we are putting on our last Christmas Show contribution & we are all a little 'rusty' we need polishing up!! So we started that evening with our first rehearsal.

The September Competition was won by Miss Maud Parnell & the raffle by

It's our Harvest Home in October - members bring gifts which at the end of the evening are auctioned off - all helps with the W.I. funds as well as being a light hearted amusing divertisement.

Our Speaker for November is Mrs Warde, a V.C.O. with slides and momentos from Peru, and the competition a Home Made Christmas card.

Our Institute has started to grow in number, why not come along and give us a try?

The centenary of Tregaddick is coming up - could I please have any information regarding the house, families, builders, memories - no snippet too small to build up a large canvas. If the chatter of the Over 60's at their visit is anything to go by, there should be a lot to tell.... Ed.

SPONSORED FUN TREASURE HUNT.

St Breward Methodist Sunday School children went on a Sponsored Fun Treasure Hunt around the village in September in aid of the Building Fund. Mr & Mrs Bousfield supplied the clues. It was a lovely evening and some parents and friends also joined in. Those taking part were:- Mandy, Tammy & Rebecca Greenaway, Marie Kay, Charlotte Long, Heidi Davey, Kelly Barber, Lucy Whitehouse, Joanne Dynes, Ja net & Mark Prout, Matthew Teague, John & Phillip Hoskin, Robin Teague. The total for the Treasure Hunt was £264.71p.

On Friday September 13th a Coffee Evening was held in the Sunday School when the children handed in their sponsor money.

During the evening Mrs Young helped open and count the money in the 'Sunshine Bags'. Members and friends of St Breward Methodist Chapel have been saving 2p's in their Bags during the summer. The idea being to put a 2p in the Bag each day the sun shone. We were hoping for a good summer, (I think when the sun did shine folks were so pleased to see it that more than 2p went in). The total for the six months was £87.61p. Most of the bags were collected again to save during the Autumn until Christmas or the New Year. The money is to go towards the building fund.

We should like to say a Big Thankyou to all those people who took part, those who gave sponsorship personally and anonymously. Also thanks to Mr & Mrs Bousfield for helping with the clues for the Treasure Hunt.

Thank you to one and all.

W.R.V.S. OVER 60's REPORT.

On 17th September we were delighted to welcome Mrs Oliver, who showed a large display of paperweights & told us of the different methods by which they are made. Commemorative pieces and even advertising samples were among the many designs.
She was warmly thanked and in return said how she appreciated our support at her coffee morning to raise funds for the W.I. tent at the Royal Cornwall Show. She judged the competition - paperwight of course - and this was won by Mrs Miller.

Next day, 18th September, several of us took advantage of the Open Day at Lanhydrock and thoroughly enjoyed visiting the lovely old house and our tea afterwards, which was kindly arranged by Mrs Hicks.

Oct 1st was our Harvest Meeting when members generously brought a wonderfull collection of all kinds of good things, which was just as generously bid for in the auction & the result swelled our funds considerably. The winner of the competition - arrangement of berries & foliage, was won by Mrs M Webber.
