Letter from AH Wallace, Hunters Moon, Blisland

Dear Sir,
Having read the Clerk's letter in the November issue of the Parish Magazine, I get the impression that our Parish Council are extremely confused in their priorities.

Obviously at the instigation of North Cornwall District Council, and having admitted that there is no demand in the area, they are touting for applicants for the Local Housing List, presumably so that the 'painting by numbers' District Council can fill in the green spaces!

The sad and almost inevitable closing of Blisland School, due to the fall in the number of pupils, is a direct reflection on the lack of jobs in the village, coupled to a virtually non-existent Public Transport Service. Surely these are the problems to which the Parish Council should be giving their attention.

It is also interesting to note that after repeated rejection of applications for private development in the area, due to lack of sewage capacity, the plant suddenly becomes able to cope with an added council load. Does this indicate an increase in the size of the plant and addition to our rates?

Finally, far from enhancing the rural aspect, the Parish Council decision to ban horses from the village green will virtually destroy one of the village's most attractive features - The New Year's Day Meet.

Yours faithfully,

AH Wallace

Dear Friends,

We are at the start of the New Year when we celebrate the manifestation of the Blessed Lord at Epiphany, the Feast Day associated with the Wise Men completing their pilgrimage to find Him and to pay homage to Him.

The Wise Men followed the light, the light of the star which had appeared in the firmament. Its message was sufficiently strong, sufficiently urgent for them to take to the roads to find the new King. "Where is he who has become King of the Jews?", was the enquiry when they reached Jerusalem.

The Hebrews on the whole, could not see Jesus as the promised Messiah; this was not the sort of Messiah they had expected or wanted. Christ's own disciples had difficulty in recognising Him: Even after the Resurrection, so little had they learnt of the truth that they still asked; "Lord, will you restore the Kingdom of Israel?"

But His kingdom is world-wide; "Jesus Christ is lord of all", declared St Peter a little later, in the Acts of the Apostles, and since Christ died for all, He has the right to claim allegiance of all. This is why we should be even stronger in our loyalty to Him in our worship and in our commitment to His service. Surely this is the appropriate way to set out on our journey through 1997.

May God's blessing be upon you all in this journey.

Yours in Christ,

Rev. David Reed Priest-in-Charge

Two events held recently helped to fund the Tower Roof Appeal. The Christmas Fayre held in the Bandroom was very well supported and realised a profit of £613.00.
Grand Draw winners were:-
1st Mrs Hutton
2nd Mr Wilton (Hayle)
2nd Mrs Whiteway
Numerous other prizes were distributed.

The visit of Bodmin Male Voice Choir to the church was very successful and much enjoyed by everyone. Father David Reed welcomed the choir, refreshments were served. A profit was made totalling £160.00. Thanks are expressed to all who supported these 2 events and helped in any way.

A new year: New challenges: New opportunities and decisions, decisions, decisions.....

Traditionally, January is a time of looking forward, treading new paths, uncharted territories of life.

Much is unknown, but one thing is certain. You and I will be asked to make decisions each day that comes. Some will be easy and some may be hard.

The politicians will press for a decision in their favour. We have to decide; who will get our vote? Our decision could affect our future.

On a lighter note, brochures and adverts will press us to decide; Where to take that well earned holiday. So many destinations to choose from, so many ways to pay.

Friends, family and perhaps employers ask questions we would prefer not to answer. Do we tell the truth? Or do we cover with a well thought lie? Oh for the wisdom of Solomon to help us in so many of these situations.

Hang on, I've just had a brain wave. James 1.v5 of my bible says: If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask of God who gives generously without finding fault, and it will be given him.

But will it work? Can I trust God to keep His word?

Well, come to think, there was a young lady called Mary; she took God at his word, and from what I have been hearing recently - - - she was well blessed.

Let's learn from her example and may you and I both have a very blessed and wonderful New Year.

Yours very sincerely,

Pastor Brian

God's World

Gulls gliding along Cornish Cliffs,
A peregrine stoops to kill its prey,
Kestrel motionless on rising air
All feathers interlocked and streamlined,
A perfect platform its vole to spy.
No microprocessor here controls
These swingwings and helicopters.
But God's World, not man's.

Salmon fighting back to home
Life's long journey nearly done.
Peace can not be far away,
When duty done its eggs to lay.
Swallows seek familiar eves
Nosing north on warming breeze
Heralding yet another spring,
But God's World, not man's.

Mammals that fly finding food by sound,
Others sleeping near half a year,
Some stay warm when they aught to freeze.
Unseen by man His reptiles hunt
By infra red instead of light;
Insects the same, well past the blue
Flowers with such a different hue.
But God's world, not man's

What fun Gods had before we came,
As yet a babe in an old, old world
So full of wonder known today
That Engineer Extraordinary,
What riches yet tomorrow brings,
If we have time to stand and stare,
If man looks after what he sees -
God's World and man's.

Blisland School Update

Within the last 12 months there have been highs and lows regarding our village school.

In October 1995 our pupil numbers unfortunately fell to 8, and the Local Education Authority felt it necessary to recommend closure. Our case then had to be taken to the full County Council meeting in February 1996 who, despite a campaign by parishioners, voted by a majority of just one vote to cease maintaining Blisland School in August 1996

Local people were unwilling to give up the fight and objected to Gillian Shephard - Secretary of State for Education, who took rather longer than expected to make a decision regarding the school's future, in that time the school was inspected by a team from OFSTED (Office For STandards in EDucation) their excellent report confirmed the views of parents, governors and staff, and stated that..... "the pupils spiritual and cultural development are sound, and their moral and social education are good..... Lessons are well planned with clear objectives and the tasks are matched to the pupils levels of ability..... Although the average unit cost per pupil (based on 8 pupils) is exceptionally high in relation to other primary schools, this is offset by the pupils attainment and progress, their positive attitudes to education and their high standard of behaviour which reflect the good teaching, as a result the school provides sound value for money."

As the minister's decision had not been made by the end of the summer term we returned to school in September in the very capable hands of our new acting Headmistress, Mrs Heather Langton, and were delighted to welcome, not only the original 8 pupils, but also 9 new ones as well, which also confirmed what local people had said - that given time the school would recover.

Gillian Shephard's decision to support the County Council also came in September with the amendment that closure should be August 1997, but we were not deterred. We learned that although the Ministers decision could not be reversed and the school would officially have to close in August there was nothing to stop us from campaigning for the school to open again in September 1997.

Due to the excellent OFSTED report and the dramatic increase in numbers we felt that the County Council should look at our case again, so we contacted every County Councillor and once more found ourselves sitting in the public gallery at County Hall waiting for the School's future to be debated and voted on. A motion was proposed and seconded, "that Cornwall County Council take all necessary action to commence consultations to open Blisland School in September 1997." It was with much relief, tears and cheers that this time we won by 36 votes to 27. Although this battle was won, the fight is not over, but everyone concerned is feeling more positive, especially as the support of the majority of County Councillors is so overwhelming. Obviously this will be a long procedure, but with strong local support we can show that the people of Blisland will continue to fight for what they believe and know to be a key element of our village life.

The Australian connection with St Breward

Ever since publishing 'A History of St Breward', I have received letters from all over the world from people who have some connection with the village. A recent letter from New South Wales, Australia, may be of interest to readers of our Parish Magazine:-

I am writing to you as I found an old paper cutting of 1988 in which your book had been mentioned in a book review. I am wondering if you may still have a copy of 'The Life of a Moorland Village'. I am particularly interested in the Moor and its history, its crosses and standing stones etc. The names are like magic - De Lank and Hantergantick.

I belong to a small group here on The Central Coast that have Cornish ancestors that came to NSW and some to South Australia in the 1860's - 1870's. There is a lady I know down in Umina; her grandmother was baptised in one of the Churches on the Moor. I'm not sure which Church.

My husband's people had connections to a John Thomas Couch who used to travel around the Moor selling his wares from a horse and wagon. I'm sorry I drift away a bit, but I find it so very interesting. I do hope you have a copy of the book available, or a good second-hand copy. (Gwynneth Wakeham)

I do reply to all these letters, regretting that the book is out of print and second-hand copies are rare and selling for £20. I gave this lady the address of one or two people in NSW who did buy a copy of the book and who may well be prepared to lend it to her. I referred her to page 73, where Tom Couch and his Churchtown Shop and his donkey and trap are described; and I told her that many people in St Breward still remember him and tell how his donkey knew just where to go and where to stop. I don't think that a blind man would be allowed to do a sales round nowadays, however clever the donkey!

Due to problems incurred in 1996 We will be operating this new calendar from January 1st 1997. We are sure that customers will soon appreciate the benefit of this new innotive system.

This is a special calendar which has been developed for handling urgent orders. All urgent orders are wanted yesterday. subsequently all dates run backwards. With this calendar a client can order his groceries on the 7th and have them delivered on the 3rd.

Everyone wants their bacon by Friday. so there are 3 Fridays in every week.

There are 5 new days at the end of the month for those end-of-the-month settling-up chores.
There is no 1st of the month - so there cannot be late delivery of end-of-the- month orders.
No-one likes Mondays so these have been eliminated.
There are no Saturdays or Sundays. so overtime rates can be kept to a minimum.
There is a special day each week. Mirday. for the performance of Miracles

We would like to thank Teague Brothers for their assistance in introducing this system which. they assure us. they have used successfully for a number of years.

St Breward WI December Meeting

The 17 members present heard Mrs P Bousfield read November's minutes owing to the absence of our secretary's voice! It was confirmed that the date for the Trelawney lunch will be January 8th, arriving at 12.30 pm by the bus. Our institute has certainly supported Denman College this year with two visits by Mrs C Woolf and Mrs H Cragg's more recent one, having already booked a further course for next July. Mrs M Metters and Mrs A Hole will be competing in the darts competition, and the next round of the scrabble competition will take place in January in St Breward. Mrs A Holmes will read the lesson on behalf of the WI at the 9 Lessons and Carols Service in St Breward Methodist Chapel. Following our President's letter of complaint to County regarding the lack of welcome to Institute speakers at the recent Autumn Council Meeting at Hendra, a reply was received apologising and saying that in future someone would be delegated to welcome strangers and introduce them to the officers present (exactly as we do at our own group meetings).

Mrs V Busbridge brought a Bowden Derra calendar to show members the work that residents have painted under the tutilage of Michael Moss of Trewint. It is a good example to us all just what can be achieved by trying, and very good value at £3.50 for a large format calendar so contact Mrs Busbridge if you require a last minute gift.

Looking ahead, the group meeting will be on April 23rd. more about this in the New Year. There will be a Daphne du Maurier Festival in Fowey next May and we may be able to have a speaker about her life and work before then which could be an "open" meeting for Blisland, Bodmin etc.

A suggestion was made by Mrs M Metters that our Institute hold a Produce Show in the early Autumn, which raised considerable enthusiasm but will need a lot of concentrated effort if it is to be a success.

A suggestion from Headquarters is that to mark the centenary of the WI founded in Stoney Creek, Ontario, Canada in 1897, all the Parish Church bells should be rung on February 19th 1997 - this is hopefully to happen in St Breward with the co-operation of Mr Bill Hill, the Tower Captain.

Our speaker was Mr Lawson who showed a vast collection of slides of birds we could see in the Camel Estuary, accompanied by their respective bird calls on tape. The RSPB slides were of excellent quality, taken from all over the country, but relevant to our own area. The numbers of wintering birds ran into tens of thousands in many instances, proving that this rather muddy area must be preserved as a feeding ground for all time if we are to keep this estuary as a major national site.

Mrs R Lowe provided the best Christmas table arrangement, and Mrs M Metters showed the best bird photograph. The January meeting will be on January 14th, "Any questions on WI Issues", and to ensure that there are enough valid questions for our invited panel to answer, members are asked to bring their ideas to the Trelawney lunch on the 8th.

The WI send their best wishes to all readers for the new year - May it bring you health and happiness.

Blisland WI

Mrs Walford opened the meeting in the Village Hall at 2.15pm, November 20th. She began by welcoming our visitors, Mrs Carne, Mrs S Runnalls, Mrs French and Mrs Bulbeck.

The first item on the agenda was the report by Mrs Makin on the visit to the Autumn Council meeting; she gave us the results of the voting; told how she enjoyed the talk given by the curator of Rosemore Gardens and in all deemed it to be an excellent and enjoyable outing.

As mentioned in a previous issue, we will be celebrating our 50th anniversary on January 22nd 1997. the venue for this gathering is Hengar Manor. We look forward to this.

We were very fortunate to have as our speaker, Miss Fiona Russell, who gave us a demonstration on Christmas decorations. As always it was a pleasure to see her at work, the results of which hopefully inspired us to do better ourselves. The vote of thanks was given by Mrs Barwood.

Refreshments were served but before closing the meeting at 5pm, we arranged for our final meeting of the year which will be on December 11th, when we hope to enjoy our pre-Christmas party.

By the time this article is issued, we will have entered into the year 1997, so may I on behalf of Blisland WI wish fellow members and readers of this magazine

"A very Happy and Healthy New Year"

Editorial

Readers will find changes in the layout of this issue. It takes quite an amount of time to complete an issue so these changes are enough for one month. Front covers are a problem. Ideally I would like line drawings in black and someone with a scanner to scan them into a suitable format. Photographs will have to wait until later. I have changed the cover in an effort to emphasise the fact that this magazine is a community magazine and not just a church magazine. I want your magazine to be read and enjoyed by everyone in Blisland, Temple and St Breward. I want it to become an indispensable feature of every home. I have started a What's On Diary in which all village events will feature. I want cartoons, jokes, topical quotes, etc etc. Finance is a problem - the printer has to be paid. Your subscriptions, due in January will be most welcome. Hand them to your distributor or direct to our treasurer. We need to increase advertisement revenue to bridge the income shortfall. I hope you approve the changes. Constructive comments will be welcome.

Recent Results: December 7th: The first team travelled to Gala Park, where they played Porthleven in the Senior Cup . They were 1 - 0 down at half time but managed to equalise just after the interval. After a hard working performance they eventually lost 4 -1. (I was in my car listening to Radio Cornwall`s Saturday Sports and their reporter at the match called St Breward `the Basement Team`. An odd name for a club high on Bodmin Moor! Ed)

The second team won 4 - 0 against St Lawrence maintaining a good league position.

Social News

Thirty members of Bodmin Gateway Club had a social evening on the 5th of December. Refreshments were provided by the club. Chris Greenaway presented the Skittle Trophies and a good time was had by all.

On December 8th a Manchester group called Sweet Jane, entertained at the club. They were a huge success with everyone enjoying themselves on the dance floor - even 'Last Walzer' Henry Wills was reportedly seen dancing more than once. Hopefully we can book them again next year. Watch out for the date!!

On December 10th forty Priory House members with their carers and parents had a very enjoyable Christmas dinner followed by dancing to Jumbo`s disco. Club Chairman, Christopher 'Greens' Greenaway was promoted from Spud basher to Head Waiter. An informed bystander thought that he should have stuck to the potatoes. (Kerry take note!)

Priory House presented an engraved crystal bowl to Doreen & David Kay in recognition of all the effort they put into ensuring the success of Priory House`s weekly visits to Barn Parc.
