For Your Church Diary

Sunday 24 May 1998
Both parishes have been invited to join in with the Patronal Festival celebrations of the Church of the Ascention, Crownhill, Plymouth, for a Festal Evensong at 6pm. The Vicar is Fr Paul Hancock, who was Rector of our parishes some time ago. It is suggested that we set out after lunch and have a picnic tea at Crownhill Fort or on Plymouth Hoe and make an occasion of it. I have extended an invitation to Fr Hancock and his parishioners to share our celebrations on St Pratt's Day in September.

A coffee morning will be held at the Mansion House, Blisland, by kind permission of Mr and Mrs Ward Lee, on Wednesday 29th April, from 10.30-12.00. Bring and Buy, Cake Stall and Raffle. All are welcome.

Editorial

Thank the Lord that there were no more letters to my dog Holly as it is all going to her head. She rules our household and now tries to hog the computer. She didn't like the sound coming from one of Niall's computer games, so she bit through the speaker wires. We now have a silent multi-media computer, which must be a first.

Please keep your stories and information pouring in.

Dear Friends

The penetential season of Lent is drawing to its climax with the euphoria of Palm Sunday and the traumatic events of Holy Week and Good Friday to live through during the first days of the month before we look forward to the joyful celebration to the Queen of Festivals – Easter.

Easter has some very important things for us to accept and understand; firstly, Easter tells us not to despair but to hope; the disciples and their friends were in deep despair after the misery of seeing their Master on the cross, yet were greeted by what seemed unbelievably good news as Easter Day dawned just two days later – that Jesus lives!

Easter tells us that good is stronger than evil; Jesus was on the side of good, and the failure of evil and foolish men to destroy him allowed the proclamation of the victory of good over evil. And above all, the Easter message is the promise of life, true life beyond the grave.

The very first Easter message was the one that the women brought to the apostles, "The tomb is empty – the Body of the Lord is not there!" As Peter and John ran off to investigate what must have been to them an impossible tale, they could not have expected what was to follow, the astonishing story of splendour and triumph out of past ruin, destruction and death, banishing the darkness sin, despair and failure.

Now salvation and hope was the promise to all who affirm faith is Christ, to all who believe in his sacrifice, and celebrate this glory is his risen life.

May I wish you all a very happy Easter.

Yours in Christ,
Father David

Dear Friends,

I wish you all a very happy Easter. May the message it brings, restore in you and I a certain hope for the future. Easter, quite rightly comes at Springtime when new life is budding forth in the countryside around us, giving us a visual reminder of life after death. Jesus Christ our Saviour said of himself; "I am the resurrection and the life." When he died on the cross of Calvary his last words were ; "It is finished." With that, he bowed his head and gave up his spirit. To those who looked on this it was indeed the end. It was finished. For Jesus, those words had a deeper meaning. His work on earth was complete and he would rise again to continue life in the service and presence of His Father God.

Christians are followers of Christ, not just for this life only, but like him we too shall one day give up our spirit and rise again to continue living in the presence of God. That's the real meaning of Easter for me. Praise God.

Yours sincerely,
Brian

THE OTHER SIDE OF EASTER BUNNIES

Rabbits were both a blessing and a curse. They were a good addition to the meat ration during the war and when they got too plentiful we would get the trappers in and they would soon have a lot strung up in the barn. These they would pay for and take away.

We did trap them ourselves or have shooting parties in the early days, but they soon outnumbered our efforts, and by engaging the trappers we were able to sell them and reduce their numbers much more quickly.

We loved a good rabbit pie, but I think the favourite dish was fried rabbit. When once we had some friends to stay they wanted a days sport. They had a wonderful time, but I was dismayed when they returned with 20 or so small ones with a request to have them fried for supper.

It took quite a time to skin and joint them. I'd never seen so much fluff in my life! The skins were so tender they tore apart as I worked. I constantly had to clean my fingers, but the delicious dish of fried joints was so appreciated it seemed worthwhile.

The other side of the coin was when the rabbits decided to invade the grass or cornfields, or when our plants started to thrive. We planted hundreds of cauliflower one year, which we hoped to sell. It was a dry spell of weather and after planting we had to water along the rows. They took root and were doing well until the invasion, and little was left but the stumps; it nearly broke our hearts. We soon got the trappers in but it was like closing the stable door after the horse was gone. Then myxomatosis struck in 1954 and the rabbit population was practically wiped out.

We didn't fancy rabbit pie anyway after this, but we did miss it, and there was nothing else so cheap and plentiful to take its place. Gwen Masters

St Breward Guiding Celebrates 25 years

St Breward Guides are planning to mark this notable achievment. Events to be announced at a later date. Congratulations to all who have helped over the 25 years.

When asked, present and past guides say that Jill Jeffs has been there for ever, not just the last 25 years. I cannot confirm this, as she refuses to return my calls. Hopefully the Guides will write a feature about their 25 years of guiding

ST BREWARD NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH

Are you aware that St Breward has a Neighbourhood Watch Scheme? What is Neighbourhood Watch and how does it work? A number of households get together to form a Neighbourhood Watch Group, they vary in size depending on the area and what local people want. They are led by a Co-ordinator and run by a Committee, for this you need the sort of people who get things done. Neighbourhood Watch members develop close links with the local police. Police officers can provide advice and pass on information about local crime, such as recorded burglary figures for St. Breward.

St Breward Neighbourhood Watch already has a Co-ordinator - Percy Dingle, and an Assistant Co-ordinator - Ellen Byrne, but what it really needs to make it a success is a Committee plus Individual People willing to form a Neighbourhood Watch Information Network. What is an Information Network? The Neighbourhood Watch Co-ordinator and Assistant, receives information from the Police, it could be for example, to look out for a white Toyota with a certain number plate which may have been seen in the vicinity of a burglary in the area. The Co-ordinator passes this information to the individuals in the Network, if anyone sees the particular vehicle they immediately phone the police. If the individual wishes to retain anonymity and would rather not contact the police personally, Percy Dingle is happy to do so on their behalf. It is prompt action on the part of ordinary people which enables the police to act before more crimes are committed.

What St Breward really needs is people willing to form a Committee, people willing to pass on messages to their neighbours either on foot or by phone. The more people willing to get involved and do their bit, the more successful St Breward's Neighbourhood Watch can be. It is in the interests of the whole village to get involved, the Police can provide Neighbourhood Watch signs which can be attached to Lamp Posts or Notice Boards at a small cost, most Parish Councils have been happy to bear the cost of these. Just having the signs on display is enough to deter a criminal. Neighbourhood Watch can also provide expert information: on security measures; recommended window and door locks; reduced cost house insurance for members; and various other devices available at special rates.

JOIN YOUR LOCAL NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH SCHEME NOW, DON'T DELAY, IT IS PEOPLE LIKE YOU WHO MAKE IT WORK.

Contact Percy Dingle on 01208 850518 Or Ellen Byrne on 01208 851568

A NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH MEETING WILL BE HELD ON mONDAY 2ND APRIL, 1998 7.30PM AT THE RED CROSS ROOM.

Dear Denis Lusby

I was interested to read the piece about St. Catherine's Church, Temple. I've visited the church a couple of times. I'm parttcularly fond of the stained-glass window depicting St Francis, who was the founder of the Franciscan order of friars, and is the patron saint of animals. St Francis's Day is October 4th, and is also known as world pets day.

One thing I am curious about is the heraldic shield depicted within the St Francis window, perhaps someone could shed some light on this, and the window's origin. I enclose another poem of mine.

JM Hodges (Mrs)

While standing in Blisland Shop, I noticed a jar of Flying Saucers. It has been many years since my last close encounter with these sweets. My mind was immediately catapulted back through the decades, back and back to a time of Andy Pandy, and aeons before Red Dwarf (yes, there was life prior to Red Dwarf), a sort of Primeval Cambell's soup, if I can remember rightly. Anyway, in the words of the Wise One (Ernie Wise) here's the poem, like wot I wrote .....

FLYING SAUCERS

Flying saucers are out there waiting for children to weaken;
Just as they did during my childhood.
Clustered in sweet jars; stationed at corner shops.
Tempting the young with their pastel colours and sherbet centres. Inviting bad teeth, and spotty complexions.
Look out for the sweet counter, somewhere near you.

FOOTPATHS AND BRIDLEWAYS IN BLISLAND PARISH

The Parish Council has undertaken to ensure that all the public footpaths in the parish are accessible and maintained in a usable condition.

There are 24 paths of varied length – some used more than others. We would like people to "adopt" a path (or 2 or 3) by walking it and letting us know whether any work needs to be done on it. We are NOT asking you to do the work – just establish what is needed.

Several councillors have already volunteered, but we would be glad of a few more helpers. Please get in touch with Joy Montague, Temple. (821582)

REPAIR WORK

Thinking of taking a holiday abroad Folks? Make sure that your intentions are clear, or better still, study the language first.

An English Lady wished to stay at a small German village in the mountains, she knew little of the language so she asked the local schoolmaster to come to her aid. Between them they wrote to the German schoolmaster enquiring about the situation and asking for further particulars. In the letter they further enquired if there was a WC attached therein or outside the house.

Unfortunately the German Schoolmaster had never seen the abbreviation of WC so he consulted his local vicar, who had very little knowledge of the English language. He came to the conclusion that the English Lady, was a devout Chapelgoer and wished to know where the nearest Wesleyn Church was situated. He therefore sent her the following reply.

My Dear Ladyship.

The WC is situated about seven miles from your proposed lodgings and is situated in the centre of the Pine Forest amidst lovely scenery but is open only on Tuesdays and Thursdays. This could prove embarrassing and unfortunate if you are in the habit that of going regularly, but you will no doubt be relieved to hear that a number of people now take their lunch and try to make a day of it. As there are always a great number of visitors in the summer, I would advise you to go early. There are some sixty seats, but should you at any time be late there is ample room for the standing.

A Bell is rung every twenty minutes before the opening of the WC but should there be some delay in the starting a Postcard will be put up to advise about a revised procedure.

I would recommend that your Ladyship pay a visit on the Tuesday as on that day there could be an ORGAN ACCOMPANIMENT. I shall be delighted of course to reserve the best seat for your Ladyship, there would be no extra charge.

Yours sincerely.

PASTOR Ernst.

PS. My Wife and I have been unable to go for the past eight weeks which pains us both very much, but it is a long way off . . . . . .

ST BREWARD UNDER FIVES

Our numbers have now increased from 6 children to 14.

We have had an eventful start to 1998. At the end of last year we received an Under Eights Development Grant and our Christmas Raffle raised £126.

Since February we have been able to provide our children with free milk. A recent Whist Drive kindly organised by Dawn Sleep raised £39.

Our bid for money from the National Lottery Charities Board proved successful. We have been awarded £1725! This is to be spent on a fenced outdoors play area, storage shed and low level climbing equipment. A soft play area for indoor use is also to be purchased. Many thanks to everyone who has helped us.

Seen on a church noticeboard: Drive carefully - remember it's not just the car that can be recalled by its maker.

St Breward Silver Band's coffee morning on Sat March 21st was quite successful and the proceeds went for band funds. We will be holding another Coffee Morning on Saturday 25th April from 10..00 - 12 noon, when we hope to have the band playing outside. So please come and support us.

The Full Monty

His secret's out at last. If you have watched the credits of the film Full Monty you may have noticed that one of the leading actors is Dave Hill. You may have wondered if he is related to St Breward's Dave Hill. I can now reveal exclusively, in your community magazine, that it is our Dave Hill. He was the one on the left.

His wife Madelaine, was speechless when we informed her. She had to look closely at the film 3 times before commenting, "Yes that's him. Isn't it wonderful what makeup and special effects can do, I could hardly recognise him up there on stage!"

Dave has been rather coy about his starring role. But St Breward AFC are trying to book him up next month, especially after he made a brief appearance as Shirley Temple when Johnny Cowling was performing at the club last week.

ST BREWARD WI MARCH MEETING

Mrs J. Sainsbury, vice-president. Gave out several notices of forthcoming events including the coffee morning at Mrs Dibb's home to raise funds for County and our own Institute, a stall at the football club on 17th May to raise funds for the Carnival (we also hope to enter a float – subject as yet undecided), and the suggestion that we hold our seventieth anniversary party and meal in the Memorial Hall, suitably decorated for this milestone in our institute. Hopefully there is a tem of four members who will enter an exhibit in the Royal Cornwall Show on our behalf in June. On 7th July we hope to fill a coach for a day visiting Rosemoor RHS Gardens (Forty acres of splendid plants to wander around) then continue on to Dartington Glass for a trip around the factory if possible, we may either take a picnic or have a meal there. Camelford Disabled have asked St Breward to provide teas again in June, but as it is less than a year since our last effort this will be deferred to an autumn date, suitable for our volunteers and the Club. There is a Festival of Textiles on 12th June which several members may attend using their own cars, so if you are interested contact any member who is going to secure a place.

At 8.00pm we were joined by several people who came to hear what PC Pridham, the Crime Prevention Officer for this area, had to say about "Neighbourhood Watch". Evidently St Breward is already "on the records" as having a scheme, with Mr Percy Dingle as its co-ordinator, but as he has been very ill and is still recovering this has not been publicised. These Watches were started in 1982 and as a result, crime has dropped from one in twelve houses being burgled or other street crimes to one in 67 in areas where there is a Watch Scheme. Some insurance companies offer a large discount to houseowners in these areas which is an added incentive to try to visit people to ask if they would support a scheme as 75% of inhabitants are required to be interested according to PC Pridham. He offered various hand held alarms at very low prices, and also the "invisible" markers for valuable items, which were brought by our members.

Mrs Pat Dibbs won both the flower and the safety tip competitions – a very good start towards winning the annual cup!
The membership cards are not yet available so please note that the April 14th meeting subject will be "Bees and Honey", the competition is for cookery using honey complete with the recipe, and a golden floral display in a honey pot, no fixed size.

Anne Holmes

Blisland WI

Our ordinary and Annual meetings were held on 18th March. Mrs Gurr was in the chair. Matters arising from last months meeting were discussed.

Eight members had an enjoyable evening when they attended South Pacific in Bodmin. A vote of thanks was given to Mrs Eileen Walford for the tea party she held last month. £70 was raised from the raffle and Bring and Buy, having used the £5 from County. The recent Meningitis Trust coffee morning in the Institute was poorly attended, although we did raise £114. We were disappointed not to see children and parents from the village supporting this worthwhile cause!

National Spring Cleaning time is here again – several members and children will don special aprons and gloves and armed with larger bags will comb the village for rubbish on Wednesday 20th April at 2.00pm. It's amazing how much we collect! Discussion took place re changing the format of our Produce Show.

Having no other business, the Annual meeting commenced with the usual yearly reports. Although only a small WI we had had a good year.

Mrs Gurr announced that Mrs Gwen Masters had retired from the committee. Gwen was a founder member 51 years ago and has held every office except that of Treasurer. She has been a friendly, helpful and most enthusiastic member of the Committee, thank you Gwen for all your hard work – fortunately she will continue as a valued member, we hope for many years to come.

Many thanks also go to Mrs Barbara Makin, another tireless worker, who has unfortunately resigned. We shall miss her greatly.

Election of Officers. Mrs Vl King has retired as Treasurer after several years of hard work. She has been replaced by Mrs Jenny Masters. The remaining committee were re-elected with both Mrs Audrey Pearce and Mrs Honor O'Donnell sharing the vacancy of Vice President. New member, Mrs Stella Ker, was welcomed onto the committee.

Our next meeting is 15th April at 7.15pm – please note the new time. The speaker will be Pam Balding from the Duchy Nursery. The competition will be an Easter Posy.

Thought for the Month – from Suzanne Bannister of Wainwarn WI New Zealand. - There are four sorts of bones in all Clubs:

1. Wishbones – who wish everyone else would do all the work.
2. Jawbones – who talk and do little else.
3. Knuckle bones – who knock everything that is done
4. Back bones – who get on with the job and carry all the other bones.

Honor O'Donnelll

MORE FROM 1885

Our Editor has asked for news from Temple to be included in the magazine. The only news I can contribute is very old indeed.

In January 1885 the West Briton reported that Arthur Rich, aged 85, was buried in the Churchyard of Temple Church. The little church was crowded, for this was an extraordinary event. It was the first time for 150 years that a burial had been made there.

A few years earlier it would have been impossible, for the churchyard had been overgrown for many years, and moorland cattle had wandered among the fallen gravestones. But, because of the work of the vicar of that time, who had worked hard himself and enthused others to restore the ruined church, Arthur Rich's express wish was granted. He would lie near the remains of the Knights Templar, in the village where he had lived for so long. DCW

St Breward Carnival Committee 1998 are aiming to hold a Carnival Week. The Carnival will be on Saturday 18th July, therefore the week preceding this date will be Carnival Week. We hope you will assist us. There will be a meeting for all those interested to discuss this idea - and explore how each Organisation within the Village can play a role. The Meeting will be on: Friday 3rd April in the Village Hall at 7.30pm.

PLEASE COME AND SUPPORT THE COMMITTEE
BRING YOUR IDEAS AND ENTHUSIASM

Last year the Carnival Committee struggled through lack of manpower, and although there was a Carnival last year, and although the committee put in Herculeaneum efforts, the amount of money raised for local groups was a lot less than previous years.

This year, in a desperate effort to prevent St Breward Carnival fading away to join all those other memories of past village life, your committee has recruited more members and now needs even more people to help on the day and to come up with ideas, to ensure a super 1998 Carnival. As an added incentive to encourage more Carnival floats there will be a cash prize of £50 for the Best Carnival Float. This prize has been donated by St Breward Stores (Please don't mention this to Christine as I am still trying to find a way to break this to her gently).

If you have enjoyed watching St Breward Carnival. This year, do not stand around, join in the fun and make it a week to remember.

Joe had a big surprise on 19th March when 60 Gateway members and Priory House (Tuesday gang) threw a birthday party for him. For once he was TOTALLY lost for words!! Thanks to everyone who helped out on the night. This was done in appreciation for all he does throughout the year for these lovely people, who are less fortunate than us. They presented him with £15 Bricknells vouchers, an engraved glass tankard and a fishing book.
