Magazine Distribution in St Breward

For some years distribution has become very difficult with Peter Nottle having to cover more areas as others stopped delivering. He would now like to only do Penvorder, also Mrs Bousfield who has delivered magazines for many years is finishing with the December edition.

Since I took over as editor more and more St Breward residents collect their magazines from the shop, paying as they go.

Would St Breward readers let me know if they would like their magazines delivered or if they would prefer to collect from the shop? Are there any readers who would be prepared to deliver magazines to their immediate neighbours?

Magazine finances are finely balanced and we would prefer readers to pay the Annual Subscription in January. We are happy to collect your subscription in the shop and will issue you with a receipt.

I intend to set up an editorial committee in 2003 to cover our three parishes in an effort to correct the content imbalance. Volunteers for this please. Three from each parish would be ideal.

Please contact me about any of the above.

A church member, who worked as a company representative, once asked me how he might pray as he travelled the motorways around Birmingham. I said as much as he liked – as long as didn't take his hands off the steering wheel or close his eyes!

But St. Paul once said we should pray continuously, all the time. So how can we manage that? Easy. Keep your eyes open, your hands busy with the job in hand, and don't kneel down unless, of course, you are cleaning the kitchen floor.

Prayer in the end is conversation with God and can be as natural as a conversation with another person. The key is not exactly what we do but being honest with ourselves and not to prattle on to much. Simply sharing with God what we think and how we feel, that is prayer.

Prayer should not just be for church or Sundays. We can pray anywhere and in anyway we like – and we should. Many of you reading this will know that is true out of your own experience. If you're not used to praying then start with something very simple like "Lord help me", or say the Lord's prayer in your head as you go about your day.

The other thing you can do to help you on your journey is to read the Bible everyday. Years ago every home had a family Bible, often with the family tree in the front. That was a reminder that God looks after every generation. But it's not easy these days to find the time, or we think it's not easy. Yet it is surprising how much you can read in five minutes. Perhaps there may be someone you know who would love you to read to them?

If you are thinking about Christmas why not treat yourself or someone else to a new Bible for Christmas. There are many new excellent translations of the Bible, some illustrated. You can get a very modern easy-to-read version like "The Good News Bible", very suitable for children, or something more traditional like "The International Version".

If you like audio tapes you can get them from The Bible Society. This gives the whole of the New Testament on tape. So, as my Birmingham friend negotiated Spaghetti junction, he could have listened to the Sermon on the Mount, without taking his eyes off the M6 for a second! Derek Carrivick

P.S. If you want any suggestions regarding where to buy Bibles give me a ring. And I shall be getting from the Bible Society some audio tapes of the New Testament in February (they cost around £30 for a set).

St. Breward Parish Church

The Coffee Morning held on 21st September made a profit of £113.67 with £25.75 taken also on the Sunday Club stall. The Coffee Morning held on 19th October made a profit of £147.44 with £30.00 on the Sunday Club stall.
Very many thanks to all who helped and supported these two events. The Coffee Morning to be held on the 16th November has been deferred until 7th December — a more appropriate date for the Christmas Fayre.

Members and friends of the church have had a busy time over the last few weeks. Apart from the coffee mornings, a Skittles Evening was held at the Football Club on 3rd October. This event was enjoyed by all who came and made a profit of £46.50 for church funds. A big thank you must go to Joe and Doreen Kay for the use of the Football Club.
The Annual Harvest Supper and Sale on 7th October was well attended and a profit of £154.65 was taken. A donation of £80 is to be sent to The Turkmen Women's Group and the rest goes in the General Fund. Again a big thank you to all who helped and provided the refreshments and to Derek Carrivick for being the very able auctioneer. The auction provided many laughs including the lady, who shall remain nameless, who said she would buy a sack of potatoes if the vicar 'would drop them down'!

Another thank you must also go to all the people who turned up with their mops and dusters and helped give the church a thorough clean recently. After the builders had been working there was plenty to do and it took us all morning so again grateful thanks to all who helped.

MADE IN JAPAN

I have lately travelled through Cornwall
Her moorlands and valleys to view,
The glories of Helford and Roseland,
The mica lakes of St Austell so blue.
I purchased a lighter in Fowey
That pictures a wild Cornish track.
"God save Cornwall" was on it,
And "Made in Japan" on the back!

I heard the sweet sound of the Tamar,
The lark o'er the moor, O heaven.
I saw daffodils grow in the hedges;
I met Kate the Rose of Porthleven
I bought a rugby shirt in Truro
With colours of yellow and black.
It had 'For One And All" upon it
And "Made in Japan" on the back!

I drank a stiff whiskey in Bodmin
By the spot where our patriots died.
From the lounge bar I heard 'Trelawney'
And 'Come back to Kernow' with pride.
I purchased a small box of matches,
My lighter had broken alack.
It featured the 'Stone Crosses of Cornwall',
And "Made in Japan" on the back!

Today I am settled in marriage,
I have taken a fine Cornish wife.
We live by the sweet River Camel
Far from the maddening strife.
Our first-born has come with the June tide,
A strapping young fellow named Jack,
With eyes like the blue skies of Cornwall,
I am frightened to look at his back!!!!

Cornish Olympian laid up: Charlie Colman has been forced to withdraw from the Cornish Winter Olympic Team due to a serious accident whilst training. In an attempt to mimic the steep alpine slopes that the snowboarders have to contend with, Charlie was trying out the roof of his barn. Crouching on a plank of wood, adjusting his position for the best snowboard stance, the plank suddenly shot off the roof and deposited him in the yard far below. Lying there awaiting the ambulance, Charlie asked his son and manager how many points would he have awarded him for technique and style. Zero was the reply. Needless to say Charlie is also looking for a new manager.

We wish him well and hope his prolonged stay in the Costa del Treliske will soon be over. He says he is waiting for some snow on the ground before he returns to Penpont.

Dear friends;

The question is often asked by those of us in the older generation; where are the children? This particularly relates to our chapels of course, because the children, generally speaking, are noticeably absent on a Sunday morning. Quite recently I was the visiting preacher at a Harvest Festival away from my home district. An elderly gentleman came to converse with me afterward. He, with great joy, was telling of his younger days when, together with "dozens" of other children filled the platform at the front to perform for the congregation. Then came the question. Why don't us see the children yer now? Where be' um too?

The question set me thinking' Is it because we live in a changing society, with changing values in life? Have our young families cast God aside? Sunday has certainly changed in the views of many, once a day for worship, now a day for family activity. Families need to have time together but the pressures of life have brought many changes. So the church is seeking to change to accommodate the changes. At St. Breward, Sunday School is superseded by Children's Church; 3.15pm every Wednesday. Other churches in the area have started similar ventures. The pattern has changed but the message of God's love and salvation remain the same. It is unchangeable!

As an encouragement within all this change, several churches are together organising a 5 day "Discovery Club" at Delabole on November 11th to 15th. Meeting at the Methodist Church 3.45 to 5.30pm each day, it will include fun and teaching based on the time-honoured story of Pilgrims Progress for the 5-12 year olds. On the Friday evening at 7-30pm(15th) there will be a Youth Event for the 12-18's. This will look and sound like a Multi-Media Roadshow but again the message will be the same "good news" of God's love and forgiveness that brings real life to all So, where are the children? The churches and chapels are still providing for them in changing ways for a changing society. God's kingdom is growing!

Yours Sincerely; Pastor Brian.

St Breward Handbell Ringer's Bulletin

We are proudly informing the village that we have achieved a certificate of Merit for our tune ringing of 'Catalan Melody' at the annual Lamerton Festival, held every October.

The Festival is organised by Valerie and Geoff Hill of Lumberton, Devon. (Geoff has renovated both the Church Handbells and the Parish Handbells). Teams from Devon and Cornwall are invited each year to take part in tune and peal ringing; they have a choice of whether to enter a contest and be judged or just to play for fun. Nervous though we were we decided to go for it. We received a rapturous applause for both of our pieces, the first being 'Wooden Heart', one of our old favourites. Then we played our chosen piece for the contest, which is in a very different mood, Wooden Heart being bright and sharp whereas Catalan Melody is a lullaby therefore gentle and soothing. This seemed to go down very well with lots of audience appreciation. So having entered a competition for handbell ringing with our hearts in our mouths, never having done the like before, we walked back to our seats smiling.

We will now be concentrating on Christmas Carols for a while. We will be playing at The Pencarrow Crafts for Christmas during the day on Saturday November 30th and at the Chapel's Carols by Candlelight on Wednesday evening 11th December at 7pm.

If you like the sound of carols played by handbells why don't you come along to our practice nights, Mondays, 7pm at St Breward Church. Perhaps you'd like to try ringing yourself, you are very welcome.

The Society for the Preservation of Blisland with Temple Church
Charity No. 291138

The Society wishes to thank Mrs V Edward-Collins for holding a Samarkand Clothes and Gift Sale at Trewardale on Wednesday 2nd October. The proceeds from which raised £375.00, which she kindly gave to the Society.

A Dinner and Silent Auction was held at the Mansion House, Blisland on Saturday 12th October, which after minimal expenses raised £1,046. 00 for the above Society.
Our most sincere thanks go to Mr & Mrs Ward-Lee for opening up their home to this event, and especially to Mrs Beryl Ward-Lee who organised, and arranged the not inconsiderable variety and volume of excellent food, and drink. Enthusiastic and very professional assistance was given by Nancy, Mavis and Geoffrey, Mavis and Elaine, and sterling work behind the scenes from Jose.

We are sincerely grateful to all who joined us, and who brought a very interesting and varied range of gifts and services for auction. Their additional generosity in the bidding is reflected in the sum achieved.

GRANT APPLICATION UPDATE

Our first application to the Lottery Commission has been turned down because we are not a Charity and we apparently do not fall within "Their Remit" anyway. However all is not lost, we have several other strings to our bow and applications for grants to other sources have now been submitted which, although the cheques are not to hand, which we feel very positive about. Keep your fingers crossed we could still have a new bus early next year.

In every application comes the question what is the Parish doing to support the bus by means of fund raising. This for us is a simple question as we are running the Bus Lottery, which even after three years is still very strongly supported by St Breward residents.

If you are new to the Parish and wish to take part in our Lottery all you have to do, is talk to Christine or Denis in the St Breward Stores and they will gladly enter you in the draw. The Entry costs fifty pence per bus stop and is drawn weekly either at a Coffee Morning or in the Stores. Fifty percent goes to the Bus Fund and the other makes the draw prizes, 1st is a guaranteed £25 and the second varies depending on the number of entries in the draw

Well that is all I can tell you at the moment but I look forward to being able to bring good news in the near future.

Terry Goode

Stop Press

The first of our grant applications has been secured. CORNWALL COUNTY COUNCIL have pledged £5,000 towards our new bus providing we can get the remaining funding from our other applications. We feel reasonably confident that this will happen. Watch this space....

Time Piece Joe & Doreen Kay are quite relieved that the clocks have changed. They have waited six months for the clock in their car to show the correct time. Unfortunately in another six months it will be one hour out again. Joe says that Clock adjustments covers 10 pages in their car manual and he is waiting for evening classes in Horology to start in the Village Hall.

Blisland Village Access Roads Speed Limits

Following a change to the Road Traffic Act. Cornwall County Council have agreed to proposals to impose a 30 mph speed limit on all the access roads into the village and through Waterloo.

I have agreed that the proposal should be subject to the normal public consultation procedures including public announcement in the local newspaper and with notices displayed throughout the village.

I would be grateful if anyone wishing to comment upon the proposed speed limits would contact me on 01208 851220 or e-mail dmiller@cornwall.gov.uk

Thank you

Blisland Parish Council

An extraordinary meeting was held on 26th September 2002.

The statement of accounts for the year ending 31st March 2002 were presented and adopted by the Council.

The Internal Auditors Report was presented and a number of observations were made: -

1. Asset Register: It would be difficult to obtain insurance valuation for many of the items listed, as they would be excluded by the policy.
2. Fidelity Guarantee: No action to be taken, as the capital held would soon be expended.
3. Risk Assessment: Guidance will be sought for this point.
4. ???? & Wages: Written confirmation to be sought from the Inland Revenue re deduction of tax.
5. General Fund: This would be identified as an emergency fund for ongoing property maintenance.

Planning Applications: The following were received: -

1. Installation of a granite/wood circular bench and temporary removable roof at South Penquite. –Recommended for approval - a vehicular access should not be created at this site.
2. Erection of a two-storey extension to South Penquite Cottage. – Recommended for approval.

Access road – Fairfield. The council has received complaints due to the widening of the access road which has created a large scar in the landscape. This matter has been referred to the Planning Department.

An ordinary Council Meeting was held on 10th October 2002.

The following planning application was received: - erection of conservatory at Lease Cottage, Cassacawn. – Recommended for approval.

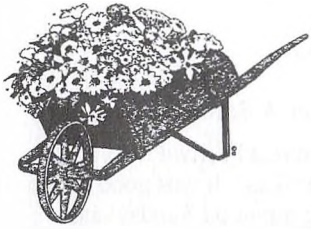
Advice will be sought on the trees on the village green.

Proposals are under review for the grass cutting of the village green and trimming of footpaths.

Mike Ward-Lee

Somnambulism in Old Inn: Have you heard about Roger Sleep who at the end of a very tiring evening sitting on a stool at the bar in The Old Inn fell asleep and slumping forward tipped over his almost full pint of beer? Luckily Caroline who was behind the bar managed to catch most of it but was unable to return any of the beer to the glass – it had gone down her front. The immediate outcome was that Caroline was temporarily speechless and Roger after asking for a refill, saw the look on her face and beat a hasty and strategic retreat.

Neither side were prepared to comment on the incident.



Blisland Gardening Club.

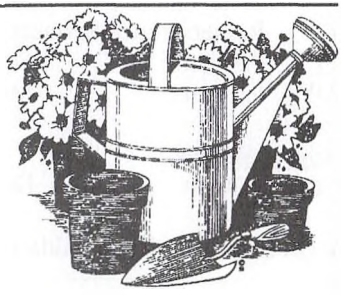
Our very first open meeting held on a rather stormy night proved to be a great success. We were richly entertained by the celebrity of Radio Cornwall's Gardeners' Question Time, David Pearce. He not only provided a wealth of useful information on how to improve our gardening skills but gave us useful pointers on how to become a successful Gardening Club.

We all benefited from a vast array of plants for sale and this helped to swell our funds as did the Raffle. David Pearce had most generously provided some excellent prizes for this.

We all relaxed with tea and biscuits (kindly provided by Wendy Gurr) making a good social feel to the evening.

Our next meeting will be held on Friday 29th November 2002 at 7.30pm in Blisland Village Hall. The speaker will be George Kestell who is a Gardening Consultant and Gardener to Ken Willcock of Ken Caro Gardens. George will be talking about Climbers in particular and will show us some slides too. Please join us for what is sure to be another highly enjoyable evening. Plants for the Plant Stall will be most welcome as usual.

St Breward Gardening Club



First meeting report 25th October

What an exciting evening! The wind howled, windows rattled (and the lights went out!) but even so 16 new members attended our first meeting and there is much anticipation for the future of our club. Messages of future support have been received from at least another 20 interested St Breward gardeners.

Lots of ideas for mutual help, visits to gardens, interesting speakers, plant stalls, raffle and some social visits to members' gardens in the summer sun!

The next meeting is Friday 29th November; 7.30pm in the Memorial Hall (which was beautifully prepared for our first meeting, thank you Peter) and future meetings will be on the last Friday each month (no meeting in December).

It was agreed that the membership annual fee will be set at £5 per person to assist with our visits, speakers etc. Very good value! - Please come along to our next meeting and join in the fun. Remember we are 'low-key' gardeners where enjoyment of our gardens, and gardening, is the main focus.

Band Just Keeps On blowing

I continue to be amazed at the endless dedication and enthusiasm of the St Breward Silver Bands players, I quite thought that come the end of the summer concert season, crowned by the outstanding success of the "Music By The River" concert 7th September, that all instruments would have been packed away for a couple of weeks or so, holidays taken, ready for a fresh start of practicing for winter carnivals and festive engagements running through to the end of the year.

Well I've been proved wrong yet again, the instruments were not packed away, music once again can be heard through the walls of the band room each week on Monday and Thursday evenings. First on line for the winter agenda, a concert at Wadebridge end of last month, followed by the playing at Camelford Carnival Saturday 2nNovember.

Then we come to the big one, the third section South West Brass Band Association Contest at Torquay on Saturday 9th of November. The band could do with all the support possible, and hope that local Friends of the Band and people in the villages will come along and offer their support for this important brass band contest.
The event takes place at the Rivera Centre Torquay. For further information then please contact the bands competition secretary Lisa on 01208 851370 or the bands Hon Secretary Clair on 01208 851203.
Unfortunately due to commitments made over 18months ago I shall not be at Torquay, but through this editorial wish them every success, I shall be willing them on to win.

Upon returning from contesting, it's knuckerling down, practicing for the recording of a new C.D. in December, it's release early part of next year. It promises to be even better than the successful "Centenary Celebrations" released just 18 months ago and now virtually sold out, although I do believe Denis has just a few copies left in the village store, they make great Christmas presents.
On the subject of the festive season, bookings are coming in thick and fast for the playing at various organisations Christmas parties, there are just a few dates available should you wish to engage the band ,but you will have to be quick.. Booking details can be found by going on their web site stbrewardband.freeserve.co.uk or by telephoning the band manager on 01208851203.

Blisland WI

We were pleased to welcome Mrs Dorothy Grundon, the County Advisor for our area, to our October meeting as an informal visitor.

There was little business to discuss. Members were asked to support the charity and chat coffee morning at Isobel Willcocks on Wednesday, 6th November at 10.30am.

Two members helped with teas at the Jubilee Jamboree held at the Royal Cornwall Show Ground in September. Several dedicated members planted bulbs on the Village Green – this proved to be quite difficult as the ground was so hard – fortunately help was at hand in the person of Mr Peter Carey who produced something like a crow bar to dig the holes. Many thanks Peter.

St Breward WI were the hosts for this years group meeting. The County Treasurer gave us an update on the progress of the new County House; there was a talk about Cornish apples and apple orchards given by a volunteer from the Tamar Valley Orchard Volunteers, which was very interesting, but the best was left to the last item of the evening, a short play written and acted by some members. It really was most entertaining and brought to a close a very enjoyable evening.

Blisland were fortunate to win the cup again for entries in the competitions.

Our speaker this month was Mr Michael Swift who gave a marvellous talk about stained glass windows in Cornish churches. Mr Swift who is a retired headmaster of a large comprehensive school was previously the stained glass advisor for the Diocese of Rippon but is now the advisor for the Diocese of Truro. This is an unpaid job but one which he thoroughly enjoys.

Described as being too Catholic many of the medieval windows were destroyed during the civil war and reformation. No more were made until the 18th century. Many Cornish churches are lucky to have retained their medieval stained glass with St Neot having the second best collection in the country. Others have Victorian glass.

Victorian glass has a hollow appearance while medieval glass contains bubbles etc. Mrs Jo Cotton gave a vote of thanks.

Our next meeting is on 20th November at 2.15pm when the speaker will be Brigadier Edward Collins who will talk about his time with the Gurkhas.

Blisland WI is gradually expanding with several new members who we will be pleased to welcome into the fold! If you would like to become a member, do come to our next meeting.

Housing Survey
NCDC has commissioned a company called PPS Ltd to carry out a survey of one thousand non-council owned properties in North Cornwall. The properties have been selected at random and we are writing to the occupiers concerned. The survey is confidential; takes about half an hour and the results will help us plan our housing policies for the future. The surveyor will be gathering information about the condition of the building; energy efficiency, safety hazards, fire safety in houses divided into flats and bedsits; needs of the disabled and any issues of noise or crime and disorder. All the surveyors will be issued with identity cards by NCDC.

If anyone picked for the survey has any concerns about this, they can ring our Principal Environmental Health officer, Peter Hilton 01208 893404. It is not compulsory to take part but obviously, we would encourage this so that the results will be more representative of the state of property across the whole of North Cornwall.

No one should let anyone in their house unless they are satisfied that they are genuine callers. If you want to check the identity of anyone who says they are from the council, ring our switchboard on 01208 893333.

Getting young people involved in local democracy
There is a youth forum for North Cornwall, which is supported by NCDC and the County Youth Service. We are very keen for young people to have more of a voice in local issues and what is happening around them. Over the next four months the North Cornwall Youth Forum is running a project called "Shape Your World" which aims to get young people to stand up and be counted. As part of this two youth forum members will be spending a week at NCDC finding out what goes on and how decisions are made.

The youth forum welcomes new members. Just ring NCDC's Sarah Wilce 01208 265631 for more details.

District council elections
Next May elections will be held for the new North Cornwall District Council. Being a councillor is hard work but can also be very rewarding. For information about how to stand for election next year, contact our electoral services officer, Jenny Bennett.

We are very keen to encourage local people to use their vote. If a postal vote would be more convenient for you, we can easily arrange this. Just contact Jenny for details. On 01208 893270 or or email jenny. bennett@ncdc.gov.uk

At the next election the number of councillors on NCDC will be cut from 38 to 36. This is as a result of electoral ward changes following a review by the Boundary Commission.

St. Breward WI Meeting October 8th, 2002

Mrs C Woolf, president, welcomed members and spoke of the recent Elgar Evening presented by Wendy Hillary which was a particularly informative one.
Mrs Woolf and Mrs G Daws will be our delegates at the Annual Council Meeting at Newquay Thetheras School, as they are presenting Mrs Woolf's play there. We hope that the leaf collage by Liz Gregory will raise money at the auction at Lakeview Country Club for County House. It was interesting to see the photo of progress in the County News at last; a letter from the County Chairman thanking St Breward for the £39.80 by a Tombola run by Mrs J Gant and Mrs A Webb at the Heli Aid day was read out.
St. Petroc's Group Meeting will be on October 17th with a probable attendance of 65 so final details were decided.
Unfortunately the Two Corner Day has been cancelled until the New Year. As East Rose will now be open until Christmas members were asked if our Christmas should take place there - eighteen members agreed to this.
In spite of the drive to increase sales of Home and Country, only four members actually buy it (although several more read it when handed on!); the £13.80 subscription is now due.
Mrs Woolf asked us to seriously think about entering the Royal Cornwall Show competition next year; a group of four is required to do this.

Enquiries will be made by Mrs A Webb regarding a visit to Godolphin House next year. The Autumn display was won by Mrs P Bousfield, with Mr. M Wilton second; the competition " how many three letter or more words can be made from "Old Wadebridge" was won by Mrs Bousfield with 363, Mrs Daws second with 341, and Mrs Gant third with 326;

Our speaker was Mrs Margaret Thompson who has lived all her life in Wadebridge. She showed very many slides, some even dating back into the 1800s, but also including the last war items. Members asked a multitude of questions but she was able to answer them all. We saw oxen pulling the Atora Suet cart on the Platt, two confident cows going up Molesworth Street to Westerlands to be milked, then returning quite unattended! Parades and bands seemed the order of the day including laying of the railway line, then lifting the last sleepers in our recent times. Photos of the commerce at the quay included the sand barge which drifted down with the tide to load sand on the bar, then came up with the tide to unload it with SHOVELS; all this for a shilling (5p) a day. Mrs. Thompson finished by showing a lovely view of St. Breward Inn and the Church with a large thatched cottage between them especially for us. A first class evening.

The next meeting will be on November 12th - the first of our afternoon sessions at 2pm - when Sue Smith will talk about lace making "my hobby"; the competitions are for My Favourite Dinner plate, and the Flower of the month.

St Breward AFC & Social Club

On October 23rd fifty members of Wadebridge Gateway Club paid a visit to the club to play skittles. Refreshments were provided by the club, and a very enjoyable evening was had by everyone.

Recently Dai Wills retired from active participation at our club and on behalf of St Breward AFC & Social Club we would like to extend our grateful thanks to Dai Wills for all his help at the club over the years. It was greatly appreciated by everyone concerned.
