Letters

Now I can see again and write legibly, I wish to thank friends and neighbours for the kindness given to me over the past eighteen months.

Driving me to hospitals in Bodmin and Truro, doctors appointments, shopping, social events or stating with me after treatment in hospital is to name but a few.

I can assure you, I very much appreciate everything that has been done for me and hope that should the need arise, I will be able to repay a little.

This further cements the reason why I enjoy living in Blisland.
Betty (D)

Dear Editor.

I didn't like the remarks made by Derek Carrivick regarding Temple's notice board.

A "man of the cloth'' should learn Diplomacy. In his position it is important that any discrepancies should be dealt with internally and not publicly as in this case.
With kind regards,
your Temple Watchdog.

(I know the vicar would be pleased if you organised a new notice board for him at Temple. Ed)

Teresa and Family wish to extend their sincere thanks for cards, messages of sympathy and to those who attended the funeral.

Special thanks to the doctors and nurses on Lowen ward at Treliske, where Gareth received the most wonderful care. Also to all who helped in any way during Gareth's illness.

Donations to Lowen ward amounted to £1,241.52

Gareth Bunt

The funeral service for Gareth David James Bunt, 42, who passed away at the Royal Cornwall Hospital, Treliske, following a long illness borne with much courage, was held on July 9th 2003 at St Breward Parish Church, conducted by the Rev Derek Carravick, with Mrs Josephine Greenaway the organist. A committal followed at Glynn Valley Crematorium.

The church was filled to capacity, with as many people again outside the church, to whom the service was relayed by microphone. The high esteem Gareth was held in by all who knew him was demonstrated by the very large attendance at both the church and the crematorium.

Gareth was born at Blisland, the middle child of I Margaret and the late Ivor. He attended St Petroc's School, followed by Bodmin Grammar and Comprehensive School. From an early age it became obvious he was a bit of a daredevil who loved a challenge, was a great practical joker who loved life and people, all attributes which he kept throughout his life and which endeared him to everyone he came into contact with.

On leaving school he went into farming with ECLP and then when the opportunity arose went on to the production side.

At the age of 16 he met Teresa and they married in 1984. They moved to Bodmin where Gareth pursued another of his interests, that of keeping birds, which was to become a big part of Gareth's future. In 1988 their son Christopher was born, followed three years later by their eldest daughter Kelly. Gareth was proud of his family and was a very caring and loving husband and dad. During this period he joined forces with Ivan Crowle and together they established North Cornwall Aviaries at St Breward, a now thriving business renowned throughout the country for its quality and knowledge of birds.

After moving to St Breward in 1992 Gareth and Teresa had two more daughters, Emily and Georgia.

Working at Stannon Pit at the time of its closure, he then left ECLP and went to work full-time at the aviaries. He had some wonderful ideas and visions for the future and hopefully some of these will come to fruition to keep alive the memory of a very caring man who could put a smile on the face and raise the spirit of anyone who was lucky enough to have met and known him. You didn't need to know Gareth long before it made a lasting impression on you.

Weather is important to us. We talk about it endlessly. When it's hot, as it has been recently, we either say "it's a proper bit of weather" or "it's hellish hot today". It depends how we feel. Weather is not a neutral but it depends how we are how we take it.

Do you know the old Buddy Holly song? You should do if you are over 50!

The sun is out the sky is blue
There's nothing left for me to do
'Cause it's raining, raining in my heart.
Oh misery, misery
What's gonna become of me…

If you are 'blue' it makes no difference if the sky is blue. We are all subject to ups and downs in how we feel. It's often hard to work out what causes our moods to change. If we get it really bad it can make us very ill.

I often ask myself is it harder for us these days than it used to be. Probably not – it's just that the things that put the pressure on us are different. When you are young the pressures are all to do with "doing well" in life – passing exams, getting a new job. When you are older it's worry about health, being on one's own, having enough money. When you are in-between it's career, or family and children.

The difference is that we seem to be constantly reminded of the pressures on the radio and TV or in the papers. Articles about how to cope with redundancies, TV programmes about getting your diet right, radio chat shows about how to look after elderly parents and so on and so on…

I think we all need a bit more time just gazing around – noticing the trees, listening the birds.

And why not treat yourself to a drink in one of our wonderful pubs. Another pop song half comes to mind: (Who is it by, and does anyone remember more of the words)

I'm singing in the rain,
I'm singing in the rain,
What a wonderful day (? Are these the correct words?)
I'm happy again.

Or as Jesus once said, "Don't be anxious about tomorrow each day has enough troubles of its own!"

Dear friends,

It has been my joy to be involved in conducting three marriage celebrations recently. What a privilege it was to conduct the Wedding Blessing for Clive and Charity in St Breward Chapel while they were home from Malawi. The weather was glorious and the bride was beautiful. Weddings bring family and friends together in a wonderful atmosphere while the bride and bridegroom are brought together in the bond of marriage.

Now, if you had the responsibility of talking to the couple to prepare them for marriage, what advice would you give them to help the relationship to be "until death do us part"? Different people will have different ideas no doubt, I expect most of you would emphasise the need of conversation and the ability to say – SORRY.

Where is this leading? To a challenge that has come to me as I have considered this; in scripture, my relationship with Jesus is likened to marriage. Jesus the bridegroom and the church as His bride. A relationship of love between me and Jesus.

I therefore need to think about nurturing my relationship with Him so that it will be ongoing and growing. Conversation (prayer) and the ability to say – SORRY; comes to mind. How is your relationship with Jesus? Are you heading for a divorce with Him? I hope not.

Is your relationship improving each day as your love for Jesus grows through conversation with Him? Do you perhaps need to say – SORRY? Yes, I do often! May we each one have a good experience as we grow in the grace and knowledge of Jesus our Lord.

Wishing you all of God's best.

As several of our members are also members of the Methodist Church it was agreed not to go for a pub lunch on the first Tuesday in August, but to support the Open Day Mrs Wendy Gurr had arranged at her home on Thursday 7th August.

What an enjoyable day it was. The weather was hot with the sun shining throughout the day. We were joined by other chapel friends from various chapels and a good support from in and around Blisland. It was so pleasant to sit in the shade of the trees and look out over the stunning view while enjoying a splendid lunch.

One could stay on and have tea, for the house and gardens were open all day. £65 was raised for the Methodist Church. Thank you Wendy and your helpers for a very enjoyable day.

FROM HELLAND:

What a commotion; a thousand or more bees swarmed and settled in the porch at a friend's home. They called a beekeeper who came complete with his protective clothing and equipment but the swarm couldn't be dislodged. A second attempt was made without success. It was recommended that the local authority officer be contacted to destroy the bees, but my friend and her husband wouldn't hear of it. What if we had the ceiling of the porch removed?" she enquired. "That might be just what's needed" was the reply.

Much suspense, the ceiling was removed and underneath nestled the queen bee. Amazingly, the swarm had settled as close as they possibly could to protect her. How marvellous, the kindness of some humans in their concern to maintain the natural world in its magnificent diversity, and how wonderful is the instinct of creatures to protect and support their own kind.

We are privileged to inhabit this world. Let's pause, be still and look around at the beauty of wild flowers, the flight of a bird, then echo the thoughts of the writer of Psalm 8. "When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars which you have set in place, what is man that you are mindful of him, the son of man that you care for him? You made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honour. O Lord, our Lord how majestic is your name in all the world."

ooooOOOOoooo

When Monica Dickens, the grand daughter of Charles was on a book signing tour in Australia, her publicist speeded up the queuing by advising potential customers to give their name or the name of the person to whom they wished Miss Dickens to dedicate the book, and then pass swiftly on to the checkout.

A woman wearing Dame Edna spectacles showed up. "Emma Chissit" she said and Miss Dickens dutifully wrote the inscription. The woman with the upswept specs looked at the flyleaf blankly. She had only wanted to know the price.

Band Hits High Note

Crowds flocked to St Breward Silver Bands "Music By The River" concert held in the grounds of Wenford Bridge Pottery Saturday 16th of August to listen and enjoy over 5 hours of non stop west country music and entertainment alongside the banks of the river Camel. Car parks soon filled testing the park and ride arrangements to the limit, but I am pleased to report that both mini coach drivers coped admirably and should be commended for all their efforts. Local bed and breakfast vacancies were soon snapped up but unfortunately many hostelries had to turn enquiries away as they were already fully booked.

Attendance figures doubled that of last years first attempt at staging "Music By The River", this placed tremendous pressure on the catering staff working at Clair's Brassy bar-b-q. With true Cornish grit Clair and Nesta Teague's army of assistants rose to the challenge and pulled through despite the continues queues throughout the concert. Hum's Bar next door also did a roaring trade, this despite on occasions being fog bound by drifting smoke from the coals of Clair and Nesta's charcoal grill.

The glow from lanterns under the numerous gazebo's circling the centre stage all added to the atmosphere of the concerts finale the" Last Night Of The Proms", led by guest singer Alison Harvey. Party poppers, paper streamers, hooters, balloons, and flag waving, added to the atmosphere as the mass bands and guest choir led the traditional sea shanties and of course the inevitable Land of Hope and Glory.

The success of "Music By The River" would not have been possible without the help from it's main sponsors Parkway Estate Agents and surveyors from Camelford. Other sponsorship to be mentioned being Western Power for the supply of generators, Duck Race sponsors Environmental Services (Exeter), Car Parking Paul and Heather Harris from Tregodden Farm St Tudy, Trago Mills for the donation of a gazebo, and Seth and Bobi Cardew for allowing the event to take place in the grounds of their pottery. The band offer special thanks to St Breward Stores for the Music By The River shop window display, the hire of the Old Inn and St Breward Community Bus, Teaque Bros: for use of their vans, lorries and materials, St Breward Chapel for use of their tables and chairs, Mr and Mrs Jones of Hill Close St Breward for the use of their bar-b-q cooker, St Breward post lady Ruth for helping with leaflet distribution and finally Radio Devon's Tony Beard and his Sunday Request programme promoting "Music By The River". I feel there are others too numerous to mention, so whoever I've missed out then a big thank you - we couldn't have done it without you.

St Breward Band Chairlady's Awards

1 Cornet player Cindy Stevens for the most crumpled band hat of the year.
2 Mike Rowe for best attendance
3 Jackie Harris for the most improved player of the year.
4 Musical director of the band Aaron Harvey a bottle of champagne in recognition of his services to the band during his first year.
5 Finally a big thank you to Councillor John Lugg representing North Cornwall District Council who presented the band with a cheque for £6000, a £1,000 of this is a grant the remaining £5,000 is a bank loan to the band over 3 yrs to be used to assist in the purchase of much needed instruments.

The band would love feed back from those attending our concert, perhaps via our web site www.stbrewardband.freeserve.co.uk. Meanwhile there's no time for sitting back on ones laurels, it's back to business entertaining the summer visitors at concerts throughout Cornwall.

Brian Hummerstone Publicity Officer.

Blisland Gardening Club.

After our Summer break it is with great enthusiasm we look forward to the next Gardening Club meeting. This will be held at Blisland Village Hall on the 26th September 2003 at 7.30pm. Our speaker will be Michael Bell on the subject of 'Bamboos'; he will also be aided by a slide show.

During the summer months the Gardening Club have enjoyed a great variety of visits. These include a tour of Kencaro, the Duchy Nursery and a most interesting visit to Tresillian Garden with John Harris. Thank you to all who supported these outings.

We have a membership of over fifty people now and more folk who are interested in joining us. Please encourage anyone to come along as a visitor to any of our events. Entrance is £1.00 to visitors and Annual membership is £3.00, which is due in January.

As usual we would be most grateful for any plants for our Stall on the evening of 26th September. See you then!

THE BLISLAND DRAMA AND THEATRE CLUB

MEETING – 12th SEPTEMBER 2003

We will be putting on a concert in the Blisland Village Hall just before Christmas. There are two possible dates and we will choose the one suitable to most people.

So if you can act, dance, sing, tell jokes, play an instrument, accompany, conjure or want to be involved but don't want to tread the boards, then come to a meeting on 12th September 2003 at 7.30pm in the Blisland Village Hall.

Or perhaps you would just be interested in going to the theatre – at The Hall for Cornwall, Truro or The Theatre Royal or the Drum at Plymouth, or at many of the small theatres within the county.

Come along and let us know your tastes – drama, comedy, period, Shakespeare, modern and fringe theatre, opera, ballet, classical music, musicals etc. There will be a membership fee, and we will be booking tickets for shows and transport once we have the numbers. We will need a committee to help organise the Drama Club and Theatre Club, so we will be looking to you for help.

If you can't make the meeting call Anne and Charles Whitehead on 851990.

PLEASE COME AND JOIN US

CHURCH CLOSE

BLISLAND CORNWALL

Five new elegant and spacious homes of traditional character on the fringe of Bodmin Moor

The new homes at Church Close have been oriented to give south-facing rear gardens, the land on which they will stand sloping down towards Lavethan Wood below. The two houses by the roadside complete the street scene and enclosure of the village green and all five homes will enjoy views over the wooded valley behind and the rolling countryside beyond. Each property is individual in character, reflecting some aspect of the old houses in the village. Locally quarried stone or granite will dress the front elevations, all roofing will be in natural slate and there will be stone faced front garden walls. Blisland and Bodmin Moor are a paradise for walkers: just behind Church Close a footpath leads down from the churchyard through the valley. Other paths beckon the hiker north to the wild grandeur of the moor, with the welcome prospect of refreshment at the Blisland Inn on the homeward journey! Houses No.1 and No.2 are now available for £395,000 - £410,000 respectively.

Parish Skills Exchange

The Bodmin Moor & Camelford Partnership IAP, are organising a Parish Plans Skills Exchange event in conjunction with Community Projects Trust and Cornwall Rural Community Council, which will take place on Thursday 9 October 2003, at St.Tudy Village Hall.

The aim of the event is to bring together parishes who are still unsure about what a parish plan is, how it can benefit their parish, and how to get started.

The aim of producing a parish plan, is to determine what your community feels it needs and identify the action required to tackle the issues of concern. Through community involvement and consultation, parish plans can outline how the community wants to see itself developing over the coming years, and what it needs to do to achieve these targets. The Countryside Agency are offering £5,000 to each parish in order to carry out this process.

The Skills Exchange event will be very informal, giving the opportunity to speak to different agencies, ask questions about what parish plans are, why they are a good idea, and who can help. There will also be the opportunity to speak to parishes who have already completed and produced a parish plan, and exchange ideas and learn from the experiences of others.

The event is completely free of charge and includes lunch and refreshments.

If you have any queries regarding the event, or parish plans in general, please contact Jacqui or Gemma on telephone 01208 79822, or e-mail bmac@cornwall.gov.uk. Please keep an eye on the BMAC website for updates at www.bodmin-moor.org.uk.

Here are the dates of our next round of focus group meetings which will all be held at Altarnun Community Primary School:

Community - Thursday 4 September, 7.30 - 9.30pm
Land & Natural Environment - Tuesday 9 September, 7.00 - 9.00pm
Economy - Thursday 11 September, 6.00 - 8.00pm

St Breward Gardening Club July Report

Our July Club meeting was a voyage of discovery – the main agenda was a visit to Middle Candra gardens and also to Candra gardens. These gardens are situated on the Moor with the most wonderful views of Rough Tor and Brown Willy. So peaceful!

We greatly admired the efforts of Jan and Barbara in their respective gardens that were both planned to accommodate moorland weather elements. Protective hedging sheltered smaller shrubs and young trees and it was clear that much thought had gone into the best way forward given the lie of the ground and wind directions. It was a very interesting excursion with quite different challenges to our more 'sheltered' gardens. The evening was fine and after our wander around we were quite happy sitting outside with our tea and biscuits enjoying the social side of our club! (A very important part of the proceedings)

We agreed to make a donation of £100 to the Carnival Committee from our Safari profits and our Club treasurer John has arranged this. John was pleased to report that we have a healthy bank balance to sustain us in the future.

Again a big thank you to Jan and Barbara for their hospitality – visits to members' gardens are so pleasant and such a happy way of spending a few hours.

Our guest speaker for August is Tracy Wilson of Duchy Nurseries and this will be followed by a visit to the Nurseries in September.

We also plan to visit Oak Lodge at Nanstallon during September – this will be a morning visit and the usual information poster will be displayed at the shop and Post Office in due course. We welcome new members and interested people so please come along and spend a few enjoyable hours with us.

Jackie Greengrass

Cornish Dance Group

The Camelford Cornish Dance Group meets on the second and fourth Sundays of each month and is starting again after the summer break on 14th September. We meet at 6pm for an hour - plenty of time for those who haven't danced much of late! - and it costs £3 per session. Our teacher is Alison Davey and the dances include the Furry Dances, social dances and local North Cornwall step dancing. Everyone is welcome and we would be very pleased to receive contributions of any other traditional dances from this area.

CONTRACTOR MANUAL. PIPE SPECIFICATION BS 5750

1. All pipes to be made of a long hole, surrounded by metal or plastic, centred around the hole
2. All pipes must be hollow throughout the entire length. Do not use holes of different length to that of the pipe.
3. The ID (Inside Diameter), of all pipes must not exceed the OD (Outside Diameter), otherwise the hole will be on the outside.
4. All pipes to be supplied with nothing in the hole, so that water, steam or other material can be put inside at a later date.
5. All pipes should be supplied without rust. This can be more readily applied at the job site.
   (Note that some vendors are now able to supply pre-rusted pipes. If available in your area, this is a recommended product as it will save a great deal of time on the job site).
6. All pipes over 500ft. (150m), in length should have the words "LONG PIPE" clearly painted on each side and end, so the contractor will know it is a long pipe.
7. Pipes over 2miles (3.2km), in length must also have the words "LONG PIPE" painted in the middle so the contractor will not have to walk the entire length of the pipe to determine whether it is a long pipe or short pipe.
8. All pipes over 6ft. (1.83m), in diameter must have the words "LARGE PIPE" painted on it so the contractor will not mistake it for a small pipe.
9. Flanges must be used on all pipes. Flanges must have holes for bolts, quite separate from the big hole in the middle.
10. When ordering 30° or 90° elbows, be sure to specify left-hand or right-hand, otherwise you will end up going the wrong way.
11. Be sure to specify to your supplier whether you want level, uphill or downhill pipes. If you use downhill pipes for going uphill, the water will flow the wrong way.
12. All couplings should have either right-hand or left-hand threads, but do not mix the threads, otherwise, as the coupling is being screwed on one pipe, it is being unscrewed from the other.
13. All pipes shorter than ⅛in. (3mm), are very uneconomical in use, requiring many joints. They are generally known as washers.
14. Joints in pipes for piping water must be watertight. Those in pipes for compressed air need only be airtight.
15. Lengths of pipe may be welded or soldered together. This method is not recommended for plastic, concrete or earthenware pipes.
16. Other items are often confused with pipes. These include Conduit, Tube, Tunnel and Drain. Use only genuine pipes.
17. Scottish Regiments in the Army use pipes in unusual ways. These are not approved of in engineering circles.

Copies of these specifications can be obtained from any disreputable builders merchant. I.B.Harris-Tottle. Blisland.

2. craft - a handmade bookmark in any mediu!1.
3. a poem (2 verses of four lines each) titled "On Our WI"

We shall travel on the St. Breward Community Bus.
Another date to remember is the 'Wadebridge Primestock Show at the Showground on November 10th more about this later on.
Members were asked if they wish to go to the Maritime Museum at Falmouth on October 17th (not the 10th as printed in the Newsletter); also to- Exeter for Christmas shopping on November 24th.

There will be a MacMillan Coffee Morning - please see the separate notice in this magazine for details.
Several members were not happy about the NFWI Enterprises idea of sending adverts from firms to each Institute so our president, Mrs Woolf, will write to NFWI.

Some members are interested in the Christmas Entertaining Menus Demonstration on October 10th and 15th, others wish to go to the Two Cooks and a Carrier Bag at Camelfield on November 13th. The day at Falmouth Arts Centre about the Newlyn School of Art and the Music of the Period will be on November 12th, and Drawing for the Terried will be on October 24th at County House.

Several queried the pronunciation of "Chy Noweth an Conteth" which is a difficult name for those of us who are not versed in the Cornish Language.
The raffle was won by Mrs M Wilton.
The competition for an interesting piece of granite was won by Mrs C Woolf, with Mrs P Bousfield second; the best flower of the month was a passion flower from Mrs P Bousfield, with Mrs. M. Wilton second.
I was extremely sorry to miss the talk by Miss Virginia Cholmeley about De Lank Quarry and how it supplied granite to many famous buildings including Eddystone Lighthouse and Sydney Harbour Bridge; it is always interesting to learn about our local history from a person who actually knows about it all
The next meeting will be on September 9th at 7.15pm in the Memorial Hall, when the speaker will be Wendy Hillary talking about Alice Elgar. The competition is for a musical box and "a burst of colour" flower display (no size given).

Bel Aire Plaza—St Breward's NEW Shopping Mall

Due to the plethora of new "Manors" and "Halls" that are springing up in St Breward, we have decided to rename St Breward Stores "Bel Aire Plaza".
We feel Bel Aire reflects the rarefied air here in St Breward, the "roof of Cornwall" and Plaza better describes that total shopping experience that overwhelms you when you shop in Row shop. We are currently in negotiations with the planners to erect a new façade which will resemble a Cornish Engine House & chimney, illuminated at night. A viewing gallery will be at the top of the 50 ft chimney making it the highest room in Cornwall.
