Letters

Ivor Chivers wishes to thank friends for the best wishes received after his recent visit to the waterworks department at the R.C.H. Treliske. They inform me that I have to undergo water rehabilitation work which will necessitate some inconvenience to other road users due to frequent stops on my journeys, unfortunately this could be exacerbated due to local councils closing their public toilets for the winter season. Again a big thank you.

Editorial

A bumper edition this month and more or less out on time, unlike last month.

I am pleased that this edition is more balanced with more articles and notices from Blisland and Helland. Please keep them coming.

It is good to see so many events planned for our three parishes—who says nothing happens outside the towns.

So support the organisers of all these events by making the effort to go along.

Please send in reports of how they went.

Copy deadline for December is 20th November, but note that the deadline for January 2004 will be Friday 18th Decermber.

BLISLAND EVENTS FOR CHRISTMAS 2003

November is with us, and even those who would normally not give the countdown to Christmas a second thought are aware that in less than 50 days it will be Christmas. With this in mind, I thought that I would write a few words to advise the host of activities Blisland has planned to keep you in the seasonal spirit and lead you happily into Christmas.

DATE	TIME	VENUE	EVENT
22-11-03	10.30-12.30	Lavethan	Church Christmas Bazaar
29-11-03	10.30am	Institute	Stooges Christmas Bazaar with Father Christmas

25-12-03	12 noon	Church	Christmas Day Service - Blisland

Church Christmas Bazaar: Once again the Christmas Bazaar will be held in Lavethan. There will be a number of stalls selling Christmas Fayre; two Christmas Cakes to tempt you, one for auction and the other guess the weight; there are a number of side shows including Tombola, Treasure Island, and bottle and Tins stall. Entrance is just £1 inclusive of coffee and mince pies. It is worth £1 just to have a chance to see the magnificent Lavethan, courtesy of Mr & Mrs Hartley.

School Nativity Play: This year the production is called "A Brand New Star". Last year we were enchanted by "The Donkey's Tale", a brilliant production. On that track record you don't want to be disappointed and miss out this year. I would suggest you arrive early to get the best seat, either performance.

Organ Recital: How lucky we are to have one of this country's leading organists visiting Blisland and prepared to play just for us. Dr. Barry Rose has had a very distinguished career including: -

14 years as Organist & Master of the Choristers at Guildford Cathedral,
20 years as the BBC's Religious Music Adviser
10 years as Organist & Master of the Choristers at St Pauls
4 years at King's School Canterbury as Master of the Choirs
9 years as Master of the Music at St. Albans Abbey.

Dr. Rose has made numerous recordings during his lifetime as one of Britain's leading musicians. Whilst at St. Paul's he Directed the Cathedral Choir for the services of the Queen's Silver Jubilee, Queen Mother's 80th Birthday and Prince & Princess of Wales's

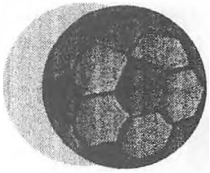
Here are the football results:



Plymouth Argyle 6 Tranmere 0
Plymouth Argyle 4 Bristol City 0
Port Vale 1 Plymouth Argyle 5
Sheffield Wednesday 1 Plymouth Argyle 3

No it's not fantasy football. These are real results for the Pilgrims in mid October. You will know when you read this whether or not they have sustained their powerful run of victories.

Whatever happens, it is good when things go well – for football teams, for you, for me. Even if it is only for a day, it is good when things go well. Even for a moment, it is good when things go well.

So when the sun peeps through the November clouds it lifts our spirits. If someone says good morning with a smile it makes you feel good. When you intrepid skate-boarders manage to perfect that special stunt without bashing your leg yet again – it's 'wicked'.

It spoils things when we think "Nice sunny day – but we will pay for it tomorrow, it's sure to rain". It isn't good to look at life entirely in terms of "rewards and punishments". I remember (as if it were yesterday) the day I managed a 39 break in snooker. It was not the result of hours of practice; rather it was much more in the realm of miracle.

God suggests we look at life as a miracle. You could say then that when things go well it is a gift from God. So, make the most of these gifts. Don't spoil today by being anxious about what's coming tomorrow. It is much better at the end of each day to sit quietly and count up all the blessings of the day.

Whatever happens to Plymouth Argyle over the next few games isn't it great that once upon a time they scored 18 goals and only conceded 2 goals?

Dear friends;

The summer has now ended and the cold winds are here. Christmas is on its way. I wonder how many of you are now saying; "Please, don't remind me". But you wouldn't wish to be forgotten at Christmas would you?

It is good to remember and also good to be remembered. The memory is a wonderful thing, given to us by God within the complexity of the human mind.

I often sit and listen to our older folk who spend hours remembering the days gone by. They talk with gratitude about people they knew, who had a great influence upon their lives. The older we get the more we value our memory. True; sometimes there are things we would rather forget, but somehow they just won't go away.

On the whole, it is good and right to remember. SUNDAY NOVEMBER 9th is Remembrance Sunday, a day set aside to cause us to remember those who gave their lives in the terror of war so that we might live in peace. Young and old together will unite in the annual act of remembrance. Christian churches will forgo their own usual service of worship and will unite for this important occasion. Together, we will remember and give thanks to God for the sacrifice made for each of us so that we might know peace in our time.

Of course, we shall not forget the One-Christ Jesus who gave up heavens glory to give himself, the supreme sacrifice, so that through faith in Him, we all can know the peace of God which passes all human understanding. We will remember Him. God be with you all.

Pastor Brian.

In order to meet with the weather still being warm it was agreed to bring the October date forward into September for our annual barbeque. Because of other commitments only eight members were able to attend.

A selection of meats were cooked and with a mixed salad and baked potatoes, a tasty lunch was provided, (No burnt offerings!) followed by various sweets.

One point I have learnt when using a barbeque is to light up at least an hour before starting to cook.

A raffle was held whereby each member received a prize. The club closes down now until April next year, but we are planning to have an outing around Christmas.

Wedding. Dr. Rose's recital is clearly an event not to miss. Light refreshments in the Institute will follow it from 5.30pm. Entrance by Ticket £5. (Contact Arthur Ludgate 851012, Mavis Miles 850833, Charles Whitehead 851990.)

Stooges Christmas Bazaar: Yes the Stooges are back, and to popular acclaim after last Christmas's Bazaar. All the Fayre you need for Christmas will be on sale, so hold back from visits to ASDA, Sommerfield, or Safeway, after the Stooges event you should have all you need, and think of that petrol money you could save, or rather spend on Stooges preserves, bric-a-brac, or Fayre.

Updated Lantern Slide Show: Those of you who have read the www.blisland.com messages in past magazines will be aware that I have been collecting old photographs of Blisland. Well if you come along to the Updated Lantern Slide Show you can see many of these and perhaps take part in identifying places, dates and people on these photographs. They will be projected onto a screen for all to see, as in days of old, but the 'Updated' twist is that the projector will be connected to a computer. Tea and light refreshments will be served half through the evening. The second half will be a slide show of many of the old pictures shown compared with a recent photograph. There will also be slide shows of photographs taken at village events through this year. Bring a pencil and paper to note down any photographs that you would like copied.

Carol & Christmas Services: These all follow the familiar pattern.

Carol Singing around Blisland: Those who wish to join the Carol Singers on 20th & 21st Dec should meet at the Village Hall at 6.00pm (contact Mary Pope for more details). On the Saturday a coach will be use to take the Singers out and around to the outlying Hamlets and Houses.

From Helland

Ruby Sunday: On September 14th a bride and groom came down the aisle to the joyful sound of the Wedding March together with happy hand clapping from the congregation, carrying a beautiful bouquet in a lime green bucket, and a little boy, their grandson. It was the celebration of the ruby wedding anniversary of Jenny and Denis Trethewey. Family and friends gathered in perfect weather for Matins and later in their lovely garden for an afternoon tea party to hear some amusing speeches and to give a marvellous sum of £450 for the Mount Edgcombe Hospice instead of presents.

We heard how some of the family and friends welcomed the honeymooners home with the rattling of sticks on a galvanised roof at midnight, together with fireworks.

40 years ago a liaison began between town and country in Tring, Hertfordshire – a love story which goes on, with love and devotion and long may it continue. As Jenny said, "If he asked me again today to marry him, I would still say "Yes please."

Summertime In doors: Recently we welcomed Caleb and Jacob Rowe into our Christian community in their baptism service, a very happy occasion with some gentle maths at the commencement of Derek's talk. The two sisters made remarkable welcomers and sideswomen with elegance and dignity. Neither boy flinched at the cold splashing water. The service ended with the song Summertime from Porgy and Bess, accompanied by Derek on his guitar.

The age of courtesy isn't dead I'm glad to report. I'm making regular trips to Lanivet waste disposal unit with bags of garden rubbish after a let of neglect, and have been delighted at the many helping hands to bring the heavy sacks up the steps to the large containers for emptying. The least likely place to find kindness, yet so very heart warming. Thank you strangers.

"What have you learned at drama school? 1) That I cannot act and 2) that it doesn't matter." A quote from Wilfred Hyde White.

On reincarnation: "I don't see the point of coming back as a tin of milk". (Ken Dodd)

HELLAND VILLAGE HALL NEWS

ISLA ST. CLAIR

What a lovely evening everyone had on 3 October when Isla St Clair visited our village hall. Her performance was superb, it included many Scottish folk tunes and traditional songs either accompanied by her guitar or sung 'unplugged'. She even managed to get the audience to sing along to quite a few of the songs. She was very happy talking to everyone in the hall during the interval when she signed autographs and sold CD's and video recordings. I think Isla was quite surprised to find someone in the village who came from her neck of the woods and could speak Gaelic.

Fortunately we are members of Carn to Cove a rural touring scheme which enables us to have top artists at a fraction of the price so that tickets prices are lower than normal. Our next Carn to Cove artists will be appearing in the New Year so keep watching the Parish Magazine for more details.

MCTI MEETING – 10TH NOVEMBER AT 7PM

This is the Market and Coastal Towns Initiative meeting which is open to everyone. If you have any ideas of what Helland should be like or what improvements should be made over the next 5,10,20 years then please come along on Monday.

CHRISTMAS FUN QUIZ – THURSDAY 4TH DECEMBER AT 7.30 PM

Due to public demand we are holding another fun quiz in the hall on 4th December. Maximum of 4 team members, £2.50 per person to include a glass of mulled wine and lots of mince pies. Lets see if a team from Helland can win this years! Please book your table by phoning 01208 72603/78762.

"Lest We Forget" Pte William Pearce 1895—1916

During World War I the port of Aden was extremely important as a coaling station on the military route between Great Britain and the East. As such it always represented a tempting target for the Central Powers, and the Turks carried out a campaign to capture it, although fighting flared up only occasionally for a day or so before reverting to a 'live and let live' routine.

On December 7th 1916 a column of soldiers from the Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry moved out as part of a reconnaissance force. They came under heavy shrapnel and rifle fire and as a result one officer and four men of other ranks were killed. The name of one of the men killed in Aden appears on the War Memorial in St Breward Church.

Private William Pearce, my great uncle, enlisted while living at St Breward. He was born at Trebant Gate, Altarnun in 1895, and is buried in Maala Cemetery, Yemen. At the time of his death his parents, John Henry and Harriet Pearce (nee Sleeman), were living at Bree Shute Lane in Bodmin.

As time goes on the memory fades and often only the names remain, remembered faithfully each November in towns and villages throughout the land. I am sure that in St Breward the name William Pearce has been read out year after year. Perhaps this year there may be a brief moment given to a young man from the village who died and lies buried in a distant land

There is one coincidence in all this. I wrote to the DCLI Museum in Bodmin for details of my great uncle and received a most informative reply. The letter begins, 'Dear Reverend Dorrington, Thank you for your letter of 7th December 1996. Private William Peace of the 1st/4th Battalion DCLI was killed in Aden on 7th December 1916.' How strange to be moved to enquire on the 80th anniversary of his death.

Richard Dorrington
Bradworthy Rectory

PS Several other family members are buried in St Breward churchyard, including my grandfather, Richard Pearce, who died in 1932 and who lived at 1 Ryland Terrace. His wife Emily moved to the West Midlands around 1960. Their daughter Gwen, my mother, moved there with the rest of the family around the same time and died in 1995. Their son, John Pearce is still alive and still lives in Wolverhampton.

Also in the churchyard are my great grandparents, Stephen Stacey Boundy of Treswallock, and his wife Mary Jane Boundy.

I understand that in the Maypole photograph on page 141 of 'A History of St Breward', the girl at the front on the right is my mother Gwen Pearce.

The Bodmin Moor Beast

The St Breward ½ Marathon Committee met recently and decided to hang up their running shoes.

It was a great run and lots of people enjoyed it so who knows what will happen in the future but for now we have to concentrate on raising money for St Breward Primary School computers.

The last two runs raised £1, 900 for St Breward School, £400 for the Playground and £170 for St John Ambulance.

Thank you to all the Committee, Aileen, Angela, Denis, Jo, Linda and Sharon for your hard work and commitment for the last two runs. Also a big THANK YOU to everyone who helped or was involved with the runs in anyway - we couldn't have done it without you.

The Friends of St Breward will be holding a number of events during the next few months so watch this space.

The first is the Christmas Fair on Thursday 18th December at St Breward School, 9.00 am. Please come and enjoy a mince pie or buy last minute Christmas gifts. All proceeds will go to St Breward Primary School Computer fund.

"Never put off until tomorrow the siesta you could take today."

BLISLAND HARVEST SUPPER was held in aid of the Refurbishing of the Village Hall on September 27th and raised £547.32.

It was a splendid evening as usual with a great meal kindly provided by many of the ladies of the Village! There was also to finish off the evening a great rendering of some of the songs of Flanders and Swan sung by Charles Whitehead and accompanied by Dorothy Andrews, which was much appreciated and finally Bill Pope gave an entertaining "Talk!" before the table decorations were auctioned.

Grateful thanks must be given to Lorraine Wright and Wendy Gurr for their flower arrangements and also to all of the helpers who waited at table and washed up afterwards! Photos of the evening taken by Arthur Ludgate can be seen in the Post Office or on www. blisland .com

Crimes committed has ranged from break- in of vehicles to a deposit of a blue, First Western Bus that was stolen from a lay-by outside Camelford at 16.00hrs, Sunday 051003!

SUSPICIOUS FEMALE CALLER IN ST BREWARD TUES 30/09/03

A female was reported calling at more than one house in St Breward on Tues 30/09/03 and enquiring if the householder has a dog to be walked. This was suspected of being a bogus/distraction caller often working with another unseen accomplice. In cases like these, the unseen accomplice enters the house whilst the householder is distracted. The caller was described as early 20's of light brown, Mediterranean skin, short hair, wearing an all black trouser suit.

If you have any information regarding this and similar incidents, please ring the Police URGENTLY and afterwards Kevin Foster on: 01208 850543 AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AFTER THE EVENT. We do have a local procedure to deal with such incidents.

Please note that the NEW LOW COST TELEPHONE NUMBER for the local Constabulary is: 08452 777444 or Crimestoppers on freephone: 0800 555111. Emergency calls are still to be made on: 999

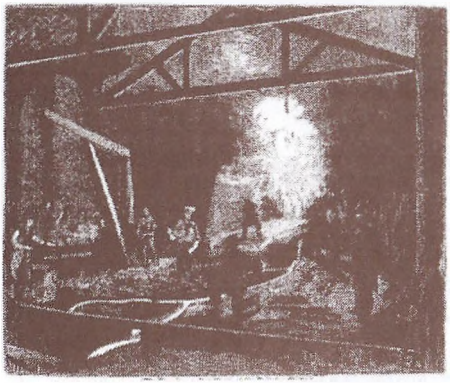
I recently came across the following report which came from a government publication of 1842 into the employment of children. A way of life that British children of today would not comprehend. Evidence is stated by means of interviews with the employers, adult workers and children, relating to the work and life style conditions of the children.

EVIDENCE ON THE EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN - 1842

Children's Employment Commission

Appendix to the Second Report of the Commissioners Trades and Manufactures

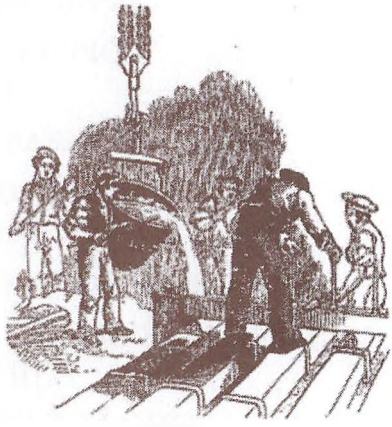
Reports and Evidence from Sub-Commissioners



Perran Foundry, Cornwall

William Henry Opie. 13 years old, examined August 21, 1841

"Is employed moulding. He has been here about 12 months; always at the same work. Was before that employed at a small foundry in Truro for five or six years. His work was the same as now, "making cores". He suffered from headache at that time, which often kept him from work. Since he has lived in the country he has been free from this. He was at the free-school (national) at Truro for a short time before he went to work. He has forgotten what he learned. Cannot read."



[This employment, "making cores" consists in mixing equably, and forming, by the aid wooden moulds, into definite shapes, a wetted mixture of a particular sand and cinder. These shapes, being subsequently hardened by heat, are placed so as to act as "cores" or centres, around which the melted metal becomes fixed in the required concave form. The bench on which the moulding of the "core" is performed is placed under sufficient shelter, but little, if at all, exposed to the influence of the furnaces or liquid metal.]

From the census of 1841 and 1881 we find that William Henry OPIE was baptised 19 April 1829 at Truro, son of Joel OPIE and Matilda. Joel OPIE and Matilda DWYER were married in 1825 at Truro. (Joel was baptised 11 March 1803 in Perranporth, and died 1855).

In the 1841 census the family show up at Perran Hill

Forty years later in the 1881 census, William Henry turns up at Plymouth

Camelford - Salmon Case At Camelford - Mr. B. Hawken writes: - A case of taking a salmon from the River Camel was preferred against John Pearce, of Advent, before the Bench of magistrates on Thursday last. P.C. Richards said he saw the defendant, accompanied by another man whom he could not identify, watching the river about ten o'clock, a.m. He saw the other man throw a stick to Pearce, with which the latter pulled out a salmon. - The defendant, in his defence, asked the constable if the fish was alive at the time of his seeing it on the bank, to which Richards replied in the affirmative. Then why did you not throw it back into the river again. (Laughter) - Edward Arnall, for the defence, said he was very near to Richards at the time in question, but did not hear him holla. - Mr. J.R. Collins (to witness) - Are you a water bailiff? - Winess - I wish I was; I'd soon catch some of the policemen. (Laughter)
- What were you doing by the river side? - Witness - Fishing, perhaps.
(Laughter) - Mr. Collins - Did you ever take out a fish? - Witness - Rather; I've crooked out many. (Laughter) - Mr. Collins - What are you?
- Witness - A labourer; in winter a fishmonger. (Laughter) The witness, in a very ludicrous fashion, amused the Court by explaining that he usually carried a "gaff," visited the banks of the river daily, and had a coat with pockets "all around." The Bench ultimately decided to fine the defendant 25s., including costs, they being of opinion that Pearce was not a regular poacher.

Autumn Band News

I must say I felt like the grand old Duke of York leading the troops down the hill and back up again, Sunday afternoon 28th September. I'm referring to the players of St Breward Silver Band carrying out community duties by attending a service in Blisland church. They then led a procession down a sunny leafy lane playing hymns (some with nine verses) to commemorate the feast of St Pratt. My instructions " keep in front and count the verses so we know when to stop playing",!! and please get it right demanded the band leader. Somewhat out of breath from the descent, there followed a short service on the site of the cross of St Pratts, then back up the hill again. After a short rest on the village green, it was time to sit down to a most welcome afternoon tea served by the ladies of the village.

Saturday the 18th of October, the band joined forces with the Wadebridge Male Voice Choir, at a Lions Club International charity event. It proved to be a great evening, with lot's of money raised for the Lions Club Christmas lunch for local senior citizens.

I'm sure you will all wish the band well when it travels to Riviera Centre at Torquay on the 8th of November, to take part in the 57th Annual South West Brass Band Association Championships. Over 30 brass bands from the south west of England are to take part, so good luck St Breward. The day after, that's the 9th November, the band will be playing on Remembrance Sunday at St Breward.

Looking further ahead into December, despite a seasonal heavy work load, I'm pleased to announce that Father Christmas has agreed to welcome all who attend the bands "Music For Christmas" concert to be held in the Chapel December 14th. Please refer to our advertisement for details.

AS with all brass bands throughout the country, autumn brings with it the loss of young players, as these young musicians enter University , or indeed take up careers outside the Duchy, St Breward band is no exception. We would welcome any budding musician into our band, no age limit. Full details can be seen in our advertisement in this magazine.

St. Breward Toddler Playgroup

The Toddler group has had a very busy start to the New Term, with two new arrivals to the group – Chloe and Kieran who were delivered safely to Nicki and Claire. They have both already started Playgroup and are both getting used to the other children making a fuss of them.

Just after the new term started Surestart, started up the new book library for the children. It is being run by the mothers, and the books are all brand new, and the children can take out books whenever they want. One of the librarians from Bodmin library came and explained to the mum's how to stamp the books in and out, and how to keep a record of where the books have gone. She then read all the children a selection of the stories, and managed to keep them all sat in one place for the whole duration!

The playgroup had their photographs taken on 3rd October, and it was decided that this term they would be black and white portraits. All the children behaved really well and the photos have come back with all the "little angels" looking lovely. The Tuesday swimming club has changed venue – we now go swimming at Wadebridge Leisure centre, where we get the whole learner pool to ourselves between 9.30am and 10.30am. The children are coming on really well, and Surestart are trying to organise an instructor to come and teach them properly. Any Playgroup members who want to come swimming are more than welcome, and it is FREE.

The Playgroup would like to say a Big Thank you to Mim and Chris, for letting us use the Post Office for the monthly drawing competition, and donating the winners prize. This month the competition was won by Jessica Waters (aged 2 ½) for her picture of daddy, so a big well done to Jessica and all the children who worked so hard on their pictures. This month's theme is Bonfire Night, so anybody wanting to look at the pictures, they will be displayed on the Post Office Notice Board. A big thank you also to Joe Kay and Derek the Vicar for judging this month's paintings.

The children are currently getting ready for Christmas, and are very busy learning the words to Jingle Bells, for the Christmas Fayre they will be holding in December. They will also be making Christmas decorations, some homemade cakes and biscuits, as well as leaving time for their Christmas trip to Trelawney, to have "Tea with Santa", which we are all looking forward to.

We have had a lot of birthdays this month, Caitlin and Charlotte have both turned three, Ashleigh and Anna are now four, and Curtis is now the grand old age of two – Happy Birthday.
As from Monday 3rd November Playgroup times are changing:
Mondays 9.40am – 11.30am - this session will be mostly for the older

CRAFTS FOR CHRISTMAS
CAMELFORD HALL, CAMELFORD.

Saturday 22nd November 9.30am -- 6pm
Sunday 23rd November 9.30am -- 4pm

Once again the Annual Crafts for Christmas takes place at the Camelford Hall. You are invited to support the Crafters and the Charity organising the event.

The Camelford Branch of 'Heartswell' (formerly the Cardiology Foundation) is helping to stage the event, provide refreshments and with the help and support of the Crafters and yourselves, raise money for the charity. In the 10 years that this charity has been raising funds, we have now exceeded £60,000, the latest acquisition being a ECG machine for the MAU in Derriford, and in recognition of your fund raising we now have a plaque in the Heartswell lodge, signifying the 'CAMELFORD LOUNGE'. Anyone connected or interested in this would be made most welcome to visit 'The Lodge.

The Crafters and the Charity would also like to thank the sponsors who have generously supported us, we look forward to another successful seasonal event. We like for you to appreciate that this is a showcase event for crafters who work hard all the year, and hope their efforts will be well rewarded! There will be no admission charge, but PLEASE look out for posters to remind you of a variety of crafts. You may complete your Christmas shopping this weekend!

Although we have moved we are still taking bookings for St Breward, Blisland, Helland and surrounding areas.

St Breward Community Bus Update

As you are no doubt aware the Community Bus has been out of action for a while in October due to a faulty electrical motor that operates the door and a subsequent broken window. The manufacturers, Iveco, have been helpful in getting us the required spare parts with a lot of pushing from our end. We will of course be asking for recompense for loss of use now that we are operational again. The manufacturer said that this is the first failure of this kind and we must bear in mind that this vehicle is a new concept in minibus design.

We purchased this particular vehicle for several reasons, the main being a twenty percent discount on the retail price, and that the manufacturer does not operate like others who sell a van to a converter who in turn completes the vehicle. Our vehicle has been manufactured as a minibus from the start leaving us only to add the specialist touches such as wheelchair ramps etc and of course our own choice of seats etc. and for this reason warranty problems are no where near as complicated as with other manufacturers. From meetings with other Community Bus representatives that Denis Lusby and I have attended there appears to be problems with Mercedes warranty and repairs where the owners have found it almost impossible to get any action, so despite the "teething problems" maybe we did the right thing in the end.

Well here is hoping that we have a reliable vehicle for the future and that everybody that uses the bus enjoys it.

On a lighter note the Trips to Truro have been very well supported and we are looking forward to attempting to arrange trips to Trago in the New Year.
For those who support the bus via the weekly lottery the committee wish to extend their thanks and I would like to take this opportunity to thank Christine and her staff at St Breward Stores for collecting the money every week. New members are very welcome to joint the lottery at any time - just ask for details in the shop.

As Bonfire Night approaches, could I remind everyone that if they are thinking of letting off even one firework or having more than a normal sized bonfire they should, please, let any nearby horse-owners know beforehand? If we horse-owners are warned we can stable our animals and shut the top doors so that the risk of injury is minimised. As is well known, horses are very highly strung and their instinct when frightened is to flee. This has led to some horrific accidents with horses caught up in barbed wire or loose on the road, or trampling on the humans who try to calm them. Please don't let it happen in St. Breward, Blisland or Helland. Thank you.

St Breward Parish Council

St Breward Parish Council met at 7pm on 7th October 2003 in the Memorial Hall. Members of the public present included Mr Cambouropoulos, Mrs Goatman, Mrs Lusby, Mr and Mrs Stansfield, Mr Claydon, Mr Browning, Mr P Millward, Mr P Glaser, Mr J Webb and Mr D Champion. Three Parish Councillors had visited the sites for the following planning applications:

Mr & Mrs Cambouropoulos - Coombe Mill - demolition of two existing chalet units and erection of three new chalet units. The new chalets would offer improved accommodation and would need to be larger and above the 100 year flood level. As Environment and Countryside Agencies had no objections, the Parish Council had no objections to the application.

Mr & Mrs Distin & Partner - Hill Farmyard - erection of agricultural implement shed in farmyard. The shed would be end on and some way from the road with trees in between. There were no objections.

Miss S Parker - Moorleigh - erection of dwelling. The proposed building was to be on a narrow site with its entrance into a very narrow part of Coombe Lane which would be hazardous and was the reason for the Council's objection to this application.

Mr P Millward - Hallegena Farm - Full Planning conversion of existing stable to holiday accommodation. This stable had been approved a very few years ago and the proposed conversion to accommodation would be substandard. There was also an unresolved but possible problem of pollution to wells used by adjacent dwellings. The Council objected to the application on these grounds.

Mr P Millward - Hallegena Farm - Full Planning erection of stable and all weather ménage dressage area. This application depended on eventual approval of the above application which appeared unlikely and objection was raised on the grounds that two stables were not necessary..

Mr I Browning - Wenford Hall - Full Planning erection of single story extension to form a kitchen. The proposed application was to replace a gloomy kitchen and sited behind the main dwelling and out of view. Previous alterations to the building were of a neat standard and there were no objections raised to this application.

The public toilets still needed work by the Technical Services Dept. and the Parish Council would not accept ownership until the work had been carried out satisfactorily. However the toilets are operational and will be maintained by the Parish and locked outside the opening hours of St Breward Stores. If locked inside shop hours, the key would be held in the shop. This procedure was considered unfortunately necessary to minimize vandalism.

There had been many complaints that public footpaths in the Parish have been soiled by dogs. The footpaths are for use by villagers, children, tourists and

The first of our winter meetings was well attended despite some members being on holiday. Mrs Gurr reminded members about the group meeting at Warleggan on 22nd October and hoped as many as possible would enter the competitions.

Several members are attending Falmouth Arts Theatre for a study day on the Newlyn school of Art and the music of the period on 12th November.

We were entertained by a most interesting talk about Cornwall's Industrial Heritage by Mr Stuart Smith. Mr Smith, a retired Chief Executive of the Trevithick Trust is now a member of the World Heritage Sites for UNESCO and secretary for the World Body of Archaeology. He also collects antiquarian books.

Cornwall has a history of tin mining with Geevor, Tolgus, Wheal Martin and South Crofty mines. Tolgus had a streaming works which cleaned and separated the tin. Geevor was owned by the County Council but was run by the local people. It is now one of the largest preserved mines in Europe.

Trevithick invented the railway engine and road engine – this was the beginning of the Great Western Railway. William Murdock invented gas lighting; 1870 saw the beginning of the telegraph system being developed in Cornwall, which was to connect England with eastern countries and Australia etc.

Called the Eastern Telegraph System – it was at that time, the most important radio system in the world. In 1901, Marconi built a radio station on the Lizard.

Cornwall also mined small deposits of gold, and of course our famous china clay. A vote of thanks was given by Mrs Carolyn Wilson.

The next meeting is on 19th November. The speaker will be Captain Mike Sutherland with a talk entitled "Fowey Harbour Masters". Visitors are most welcome.

Wednesday 5th November – Coffee & Chat morning at Mrs Wendy Gurr's at 10.30am ramblers and are maintained at public expense. Footpaths are not designed for use by uncontrolled dogs. It is regrettable that some dog owners are still not complying with their legal and social duties to clean up after their pets when on public highways, footpaths, common land and on farm land. Please help to keep the countryside clean.

A Parish Council meeting was scheduled to take place on 21st October 2003 to handle planning matters only. There will not be a Council meeting in November unless called for planning. The next Parish Council meeting is scheduled for Tuesday 2nd December at 7.00pm in the Memorial Hall where the precept, the sum of money needed next year for the parish, will be discussed. Members of the public are invited to attend, to raise matters of public concern or merely to listen.

St. Breward WI October 14th 2003

Mrs Woolf welcomed thirteen members and a visitor to the October meeting. The Macmillan Coffee Morning raised £144.80 with a rattle, bring and buy, and refreshments; thank you to all who supported this worthwhile cause.
Maker with Rame won the Festival of the Spoken Word organized by Mrs Woolf.

It was suggested at the September meeting that members put coins beside their favoured competition entries; l0p, 5p, and 2p were the amounts suggested. A leaflet was available about" Make a Meal for Marie Curie".
On November 10th our WI Adviser, Mrs Dorothy Grundon, will hold a Keeping in Touch Day; several members may attend.
This year no interest was shown in entering the Wadebridge Primestock Show.

Unfortunately Norman Trebilcock the founder on FLEET was unable to give us a talk, but Mike Ford gave us plenty of information about this organization. He described how Front Line Emergency Equipment Trust (FLEET) ensured that each ambulance's equipment is standardized in its equipment and layout, even down to notices so that every paramedic and technician immediately knows where everything is. A paramedic has to re-qualify every three years; the first item he learns to use is a defibrillator; motorcycle paramedics and "first responders" are also equipped by FLEET.

A collection was taken from those present.

The November 11th meeting will be held at 2.00pm when the speaker will be Mrs Wilson making Decorations for Christmas; the choice in either a decorative ball for which numbers were taken so that materials can be available at £2, or fancy boxes.

The competition is for Wartime Memorabilia, and an arrangement of twigs.
Mrs M Wilton, Mrs C Woolf and Mrs P Bousfield came 1st, 2nd and 3rd with "An old-fashioned health remedy; the flower of the month belonged to Mrs Wilton, with Mr. Bousfield second and Mrs Woolf third.
