Editorial

Firstly apologies for another late edition. Again this month another monster 56 page issue. I now spend so much time on the magazine everything else is beginning to suffer.

Some residents of Blisland reckon that St Breward gets its magazines a week before Blisland. This is not the case, all the magazines go out for delivery at the same time except for Temple where I don't always get out there for a day or two.

This month we have lots of reports about successful events held in our villages and forthcoming events to support.

Past pupils of St Breward school will remember Oswald Martin an old headmaster who passed away.

I am very pleased to have a WW"2 reminiscence from Grace Masters - she describes the scene so well, I felt I was almost there.

I am very pleased to be able to announce the beginnings of our very own North Cornwall Credit Union - "The Slate."

Support it, as it will not be taken over like Cornish Banks in the past or the Building Societies more recently. We are also looking for volunteers to help run our Credit Union in St Breward and elsewhere in North Cornwall. We will provide recognised training and eventually there will be some paid jobs. Happy reading

LETTER FROM TURKMENISTAN

My dearest Jan and Mike and all the host families and all the friends we've met during our fantastic tour in your wonderful country!

I wish to make an extremely hard attempt to express in words all our warm feelings and I understand that it is impossible to do it even if English was my native tongue. We enjoyed our trip greatly and it was not only for pleasure & leisure but also for serious and very representative overview of the local farmers, small entrepreneurs, Parish and District Councils, women's groups, different social groups and of course Silver Band work. We were inspired by the visible signs of progress, amazed by creativity and diversity of various approaches of governing of local community to make the life of people more comfortable and enjoying. We, a small group of Turkmen women, had a privilege to observe your inner life to be members of your families, your sisters, great thanks!

I owe a real debt of gratitude to Jan and Michael Jones for supporting and encouraging of the idea to have this first pilot project which happened to be quite successful and fruitful from our point of view. We understand that your society has its long lasted traditions during many centuries of your great History. We also have our own traditions which we respect and we are making first steps towards world society and our visit will help us to make right choice and right direction, especially in such thing as National Trust Funds, environment protection, international communication, etc

We have admired your wonderful landscapes, gorgeous houses with green lawns, bushes, trees and a lot of flowers and beautiful baskets of flowers on the walls of your houses. It is unforgettable memory for all of us and we all sure if there is Paradise somewhere - it is in St Breward village!

My sincere feelings and love, Yours, Jamila.

P.S. We condemn the actions of terrorism happened in your country. We are with you and can't understand how the people kill each other instead of being brothers and sisters. We are certain that it is only a small group of crazy people whom we should throw out.

ICE

This does seem a good idea - assuming you are not separated from your phone of course . . . . Following the disaster in London . . . East Anglian Ambulance Service have launched a national "In case of Emergency (ICE) " campaign with the support of Falklands war hero Simon Weston.

The idea is that you store the word " ICE " in your mobile phone address book, and against it enter the number of the person you would want to be contacted "In Case of Emergency".

In an emergency situation ambulance and hospital staff will then be able to quickly find out who your next of kin are and be able to contact them. It's so simple that everyone can do it. Please do.

For more than one contact name ICE1, ICE2, ICE3 etc.

Dear Everyone,

At a recent Deanery Synod Bishop Bill gave a talk on prayer, saying that one of his chief regrets was that he hadn't given people more help with saying their prayers. On the one hand prayer is incredibly easy, and on the other it's incredibly difficult. Earlier in his ministry he had worked with Nuns and found that it's impossible to do much in the church without tea. He told Sister Christy that they needed to buy an urn, adding that "I'll go to the PCC for the money.
"Don't do that I'll ask God," she replied. How foolish he thought. Three days later she arrived at church with an urn. She asked God for anything because she was willing to do anything for him. Once she slept for 3 nights on the floor in someone's house in order to help the woman through delirium tremors.

How we pray is how we live our life. We need to know ourselves quite well. We need to have an awareness of silence. He suggested that we should try and write some prayers. "Do try and be honest." "If you think God is no good tell him! One third of the Psalms say, "God what are you doing?" It seems that the piling on of words isn't helpful. It's a conversation with words and silences. The poet RS Thomas, kneeling before an altar said, "Please come in and help me change my way of looking, of seeing." Here's a prayer for August: "Lord, you knew the importance of time set aside to pray, time to think, time to be still. We ask for physical and spiritual refreshment for all those visiting. Be still, and know that I am God." Amen

Let's do our part to make a difference.
Yours Sincerely,
Val

Gratitude to those who made such an especially marvellous time for everyone who attended the Helland Safari
Supper, well done, and thank you. VJ

Oswald Martin

We are sorry that we have to inform Oswald's many friends and ex-pupils in St Breward that he passed away very peacefully on the morning of Wednesday, 6th July 2005.

During the previous few months his life was becoming increasingly more difficult because of the progressive loss of his sight together with decreased mobility. He still managed to maintain his independence in his flat until his final stay in hospital where, with members of his family around him, he succumbed very quickly to a bout of pneumonia.

We were pleased that, until the last few hours of his life, his mind was active, his memory almost perfect and sense of humour still present.

WANTED: CHESS PLAYERS.

There is, at present, no Chess Club in North Cornwall due to the lack of a suitable venue. The recently refurbished Blisland Village Hall now offers a first class venue at a reasonable cost.

We are therefore hoping to start a Chess Club in Blisland open to all ages and standards, including beginners. Do not be put off if you not played for many years – you will soon be able to enjoy this great game.

For anyone who wishes to be more competitive we may be able to enter a team in the Cornwall Chess League. If interested please phone Bill Pope on 01208 850338.

Dear friends

Where were you when the London bombs exploded? Me? I was in my study writing a sermon before flying out to visit someone. I might not have even known about it but for the car radio. Naturally, like everyone else, I was horrified by such wanton destruction of life and property and my prayers go out to all those who have been affected - not only to those who have sustained injuries and those who have lost loved ones, but to those who survived because they caught a different train/bus or took a different route and feel guilty because they are alive and yet afraid they may be next.

However, most of us have to live through difficult ordeals at some time in our lives. I like to think of life as an obstacle course designed to keep us fit and strong. When we lived in Suffolk, like here, we were surrounded by beautiful countryside and used to walk for miles and miles. But it was quite flat so walks are a now very different experience and I have discovered how unfit I am. You see we need some hills and hurdles in order for our muscles to stay strong and active and it is the same in other aspects of our lives.

Some people shy away from difficulties, hide their heads in the sand, blame everyone else (and God) for what's wrong. But when we face the hurdles and find a way to overcome them then we can grow stronger and be more ready for the next one.

Two people lost their jobs. One said, 'where's your God in this?' The other said, 'I always wanted to try something else.' The first is still unemployed; the second has his own landscaping business and more work than he knows what to do with.

Anyone can be happy whilst life is good but it's the trials that make us who we are - perhaps this is part of the answer to the eternal question, 'Why does God allow suffering?'

But whatever our trials, we need not walk alone. For God is with us, all we need to do is ask his help and it is ours. Some people on one of the trains in London prayed, so can we all for, in the words of one of our hymns:
'Ask, and it shall be given unto you; Seek, and you shall find;
Knock, and the door shall be opened unto you,'
And God will bless you whatever your circumstances.
Stella

For our summer outing on 5th July we choose a visit to Perranporth, as it is a town which is mainly flat and easy to walk around. It has a long sandy beach. Unfortunately the weather was poor which kept some members staying on the bus, others had a good look around including the flea market in the local hall.

We stopped for a fish & chips at the Welcome Stranger in Lanivet on the way out, which was most enjoyable. We used the St Breward Community Bus for transport.

HELLAND SAFARI SUPPER REPORT

Our Safari Supper at the end of June was a great success raising approximately £900 to be divided between the Church and Chapel.

We started off at Norton Crest where Shirley and Reg Lobb had been busy preparing a wonderful choice of starters.Incidentally the weather was dry there!

Now 2 miles down the road we went to the Old Stables at Coldrenick where Judith and Clive Argent had been busy preparing for a barbecue with everything laid out nicely in the garden BUT in true British fashion the heavens opened so we all piled into the garage! The barbecue went ahead and everybody was perfectly happy!

Next we went to Woodhayes to see Jenny and Denis Trethewey where their table was groaning with a delicious choice of desserts.

We then went across the road to Lower Helland where Astrid Coad had a lovely cheese board and a very welcome cup of coffee.

It was a very enjoyable evening, thank you to all the hosts and to everybody who supported us.

ART IN ST BREWARD

It is surprising how, in a small community, people respond and show interest in art. The recent exhibition at the Memorial Hall, primarily to encourage the young residents, proved this. The youngsters of today are the artists of tomorrow and we have quite a few budding artists in St. Breward!

At present there are two groups that meet weekly, Wednesday at the Village Hall and Thursday at the Memorial Hall, both from 2pm. Should you feel interested you will be welcome at either venue and you may attend and dip your toe in the water to test without commitment!

Afternoon meetings are fine for those of us who are retired, but interest has been expressed by those who are not so fortunate, in an evening meeting. At the August Bank Holiday weekend exhibition of Art & Craft at the Village Hall, you will be able to place your name etc to express your interest in an evening venue, or contact Ivor Chivers on 850109 or John Francis on 851680.

Watch for the posters anyway, and come to the exhibition which again this year will benefit DEBRA (the Butterfly children) and the St Breward 1st Responders Group.

Hope to see you there. JOHN FRANCIS

Report of St Breward Parish Council 5/7/05
in the St Breward Institute & War Memorial Hall

Eight Parish Councillors attended, 6 members of the parish plus 6 ladies from Turkmenistan who wished to see how democracy worked at a parish level.

Existing councillors were very pleased to welcome Mr W S Nankivell on his Co-option as a new Councillor for St Breward.

Planning applications received:
1. Mr W Steed, Land at Hill, St Breward. Erection of shed for storage of agricultural implements and hay. The council were not in favour for this application because there are no plans for surface drainage, and this application leads onto a Gold footpath (13).
2. Mr I F Evans, Plot 2, Hill Farmyard, St Breward Formation of new access. The council did not support this because of concerns about safety and inadequate visibility and the PC would recommend that the opinion of the Highways Department be sought – as this access would create a new hazard in a narrow part of the road for pedestrians and children walking to the school.

Approvals/Refusals: 2005/00865 – approval; 2005/00756 – refusal

The Council discussed a proposal by the Environment Agency to place an information board in the village centre. This board would contain information about walking on the commons and responsibility and rights of walkers under the CRoW act which comes into force this autumn. Concerns were made about size style and content. Possible sites considered were near the Old Inn or around the centre of Row.

The Parish Council then received the ladies from Turkmenistan, gifts were exchanged and short speeches made.

Play Areas: Chris Flood has repaired and rehung the gate at Rylands and fixed signs in the Play Areas. A risk assessment checklist is being undertaken on a weekly basis. At edge of safety matting the ground has worn away and topsoil is needed to build it back up. If anyone has a load of decent topsoil please contact Denis Lusby at the shop. Thanks were expressed for the continuous maintenance work carried out by Willy Greenaway and Peter Nottle on the two play areas. District Councillor David Miller has asked NCDC to investigate the concrete holes at Penvorder Play areas and their fencing which needs repairing and the suitability of the public footpath gates.

Councillors also worked on or attended meetings on subjects such as Spatial Strategy consultation, Rural Transport, Waste Strategy, public toilets, affordable housing, standards & code of conduct, hedgerows leading into the school, footpaths and lack of adequate sign to school. Denis Lusby, Chairman

"I arise in the morning torn between a desire to improve the world and a desire to enjoy the world. This makes it hard to plan the day."

Blisland Parish Council (July 2005 Meeting)

The Parish Council met on Thursday 14th July where there were nine Councillors and four members of the Public present. The Council also had an extraordinary meeting on Thursday 23rd June where 8 Councillors were present and no members of the Public

The extraordinary meeting considered two planning applications, one from CCC for an extension at Blisland School, had previously been presented via NCDC and was again given unanimous support. The other was for a new development at Newton House. Council agreed unanimously to support this application provided that the building was entirely finished in stone & the access to Newton house was fully described and drawn and was acceptable to Highways.

The meeting opened with Public speaking from the floor. Two questions were raised, (a) Parish Council permission for the Gardening Club led group's "Blisland Village Summer Celebration" to be held on the Village Green on Sunday 31st July, and (b) why the proposed development at Newton House was considered at an extraordinary meeting by the Parish Council. The Council advised that it would willingly grant permission for the event on the green, however the Council's insurers require the Council to witness appropriate 'Public Liability Insurance' held by the event's organising body for the day of event before sanctioning an event. This evidence must be shown to the Parish Clerk a full 10 days before staging the event. The Clerk agreed to write to all village groups & organisations advising this pre-condition to events on the Green. As for the extraordinary meeting, the Chairman explained that District Councils are now held by central Government to strict targets for the turn around time of planning applications. Blisland Parish Council meets every second Thursday of a month. If a planning application is received by the Clerk up to 10 days after a normal scheduled meeting, then it is possible for NCDC to have acted on the planning application prior to the next scheduled Blisland Council meeting. Therefore Blisland Parish Council has set in place an automatic calling of an extraordinary meeting to consider such planning applications to ensure that its view is submitted in time to NCDC. (This procedure is fully documented in the Council's standing orders.) The Newton House application was an example of this procedure.

The main business of the meeting opened with a written report from community police officer PC Bryan Rice that advised no reported crime in Blisland for a further month. District Councillor Miller sent his apologies, so proceedings moved on to planning decisions. There were 7 decisions reported, an extension at Hawkstor Farm refused, bungalow conversion at Four Winds withdrawn, a new development at Temple Fisheries withdrawn, consent for an extension at Blisland School to house an IT suite granted, single storey extension at Little Place Cassacawn road approved, an extension at Tramvidd Cassacawn approved, and a single storey extension at Carbaglette approved. There were two planning applications, one for the temporary siting of the PO & Shop portacabin adjacent to the Institute, and the other for a replacement enlarged garage at Pope House. Three Councillors declared an interest associated with the PO & Shop and withdrew from the Institute, the Councillors remaining gave unanimous support. Similarly two Councillors declared an interest associated with Pope House and withdrew from the Institute, the remaining Councillors unanimously supported the application.

The village toilet's upgrade was discussed further, a lower quotation has been received, and the Clerk was asked to explore grants with NCDC. It was further suggested that this work if joined to the re-pinning of the Institute roof might be acceptable to English Heritage for a listed building grant. The chairman advised that he would explore this option. Councillor Pengelly was asked to prepare a specification for the refurbishment of the existing toilets as an alternative proposal.

Options for damp-proofing the Institute were discussed and the Clerk was asked to explore further quotations. It was agreed to hold a dedication ceremony of Edgar's Oak at 11am on Saturday 30th July when the Rowe family could attend. There was a request from a Parishioner for a number of items to be held by the Parish Council in support of events on the green. Although a worthy idea, the Parish Council considered it could not afford or support this concept. The Clerk & Chairman had recently attended a NCDC led Code of Conduct event and suggested that it was excellent and should be attended by all Councillors. The Clerk advised that there were vacancies on a further session later in July and several Councillors elected to attend.

The Boundary Stones project has reached the stage that it is looking to Blisland & St Breward Parish Councils to form a 'Beating of the Bounds' event committee. Councillors Colman, Ludgate, Pengelley and Rowe agreed to form the Blisland Parish Council part of this venture. The meeting then went into closed session to discuss a letter from a Parishioner.

60 Years On

Thanks to Mrs Pamela Bousfield's observations, ie spotting Johnny Johnson's entry in St Breward Parish Church visitor's book in 2003, a very happy re-union took place on Wednesday 29th June in Row Methodist Sunday School.

The ladies of the Church prepared and served lunches at mid-day and it was the perfect venue in which to meet Johnny who spent five years at N°1 Penvorda Cottages with Mr & Mrs Bill Moore when he was evacuated from London in 1940. He never forgot the kindness of Aunt Edith and Uncle Will, as he called them.

He had visited St Breward previously with his late wife Elsie, but this time Mrs Edna Ternouth who remembered Johnny quite clearly, through corresponding with him, invited him to her home in St Austell to spend the day on Friday the 30th. Edna contacted Mrs Bousfield, and Margaret Willetts whilst Trevor, her son, got in touch with Dennis Champion and Raymond Burroughs, and fortunately they were all there to lunch with Johnny.

What memories they had of their schooldays together, it was wonderful. – and later when the party broke up, Margaret kindly took Johnny to her home for a cup of tea where they continued to reminisce and in the evening they enjoyed a meal together in 'The Old Inn'. The end of a perfect day for this 74 year old whose home is in Swanage.

Our only disappointment was that Josie, Edna's evacuee, who has been living in Cornwall 33 years (and is part of the family) couldn't join us as her husband Kenneth was in Derriford hospital. Thanks be, he is home again in Henwood recovering from his operation.

Margaret's home was at No°7 Penvorda, Edna's N°10 and Johnny N°1. Edith Moore was Jack Marshall's Auntie and most people in St Breward know Jack and his family.

Thank you Mrs Bousfield for being the instigator of this reunion.

X10 Bus to Exeter

As some of you may know, since 25th June the First Western bus no longer runs from Camelford to Exeter via Launceston, which means that anyone wishing to travel to either of those places by bus has to catch a Western Greyhound bus to Bude and change there to get the X8 to Launceston/Exeter, a time wasting, inconvenient journey. Sally Lewis from the East Cornwall Rural Transport Partnership is campaigning hard to get the X10 bus replaced and would appreciate letters from any passenger who would like this service re-instated.

Sally's address is ECRTP, NCDC, 3/5 Barn Lane, Bodmin PL31 1LZ

Turkmenistan experience part 2

A wary but elated group of women greeted us at Birmingham airport – amazed that they were actually in the UK and of course tired from the flight and preparation for such an adventure. The ladies from Turkmenistan experienced their first gaze on the UK from the mini bus – and amazed cries of " cows in the field" and look, there's sheep". Questions like "who is looking after them?" and do they stay out at night?" followed by wonder at the fact that they stay out all night and for most of the year and no-one stays with them and no-one steals them was a contrast to their own country. Their first meal was at Jan's brother's house and they were surprised by the house being so"clean" and the garden being so full of flowers.

Three wary couples greeted their new lodgers that night in St Breward but I know that they all became firm friends over the 10 days. Little things like cups of tea, hot water bottles and various little kindnesses did not go astray and were so appreciated by them all.

The first day began with coffee in the post office and their introduction to Denis who welcomed them all to the village – what did they think of those legs!

At St Breward Carnival Photo Peter Glaser

Surprisingly not one comment was made!!! They saw how Chris and Mim were diversifying from just the post office side and learnt a little of the village. Then it was off to Rock and the foot ferry to Padstow where many photos were taken and an introduction to the Cornish Pasty was made.

They then learnt about recycling at the centre in Bodmin – how can fleeces be made from plastic bottles? Then on for more amazement to Eden where every flower was cooed over and all understood the reason behind the project. The evening was enjoyed by some at Pat Dibb's home and her wonderful garden and half at Clair'and Nick's for a great meal and chat afterwards.

They joined in an aqua-robics class and for Tokka who had never had a bathing costume on and could not swim this was a great highlight. The two who sat out were a little disappointed they had not participated. Then on to the chapel for a great lunch and to experience one type of fund-raising as well as the friendliness of all around them followed by a serious engagement at the District Council where they met with two lady councillors and also the Chief Executive of the District Council. Ideas were taken on board and differences exchanged.

A quick visit & try out of some gym equipment at the Leisure Centre at Wadebridge and then back to the council offices where gifts were exchanged and they were given some light refreshment. They got back to their host families just as Radio Cornwall were running a piece on their afternoon's visit. On waking up to St Breward mizzle it was a late start to Boscastle to see where the flood was and how they have recovered as well as doing a little shopping. Then off to Crackington Haven to an invitation by Janey Comber and Andrea to lunch at the Cabin, Wonderful food was served to them and they had a taste of everything in the café. Although they were beside the sea it was impossible to see it and it was decided by our two hosts to find some farms for them to see. So after a wonderful lunch it was off to see some dairy cows at Higher Dizzard and then to a beef and sheep farm right on the cliffs but one would never have known! After a quick meal it was up to try their expertise in skittles, see yet another crazy way of making money and having fun with time to enjoy another pasty.

Mole Valley Farmers at Liskeard welcomed them and gave them a talk on the history and development of the cooperative which is especially useful to see how something that begins small can grow to a huge enterprise over the years. They are starting out with small co-ops of farmers to buy cheaper food and chemicals and to share machinery. After the serious side came the most important side to life – Trago where we enjoyed a lunch of fish and chips before wearing J & M's legs out round this big enterprise!

Saturday was a time to enjoy the carnival and so that is exactly what happened. It was a great experience for them all to parade through the village and they were so delighted with third prize in their section. It was rounded off by a bbq at Joan and John's home where Tokka saw the garden of her dreams.

Sunday was a day for them to cook their own food for their hosts and we all eat together outside at J & M's home . It took a lot of persuading that our food cooks very quickly – and does not take 2-4 hours! Nevertheless preparations started early and we finished late!

Monday saw us down at Radio Cornwall for a look around at 10.00am, then on to the cathedral to be shown around by Canon Roger Bush. The President of Turkmenistan's book Ruhknama was presented to the cathedral and they in turn gave the group a beautiful copy of the special painting of Cornwall. We all then enjoyed our cathedral lunch. It was a car ride to Falmouth to enjoy the view from Pendenis Point and then on the way back a paddle was enjoyed by all. Tokka went swimming fully dressed (by mistake) but found it hilarious. That evening we were royally entertained by the Parish Council at our local hostelry. Everyone seemed to enjoy the experience and it was followed on at the next evening when they saw the Parish Council meeting working – democracy at work.

Education came then to the top of the list with a visit to the St Breward Primary School and then to the Duchy College followed by a visit to Lanhydrock House and gardens. Another old house visit was enjoyed in the evening at Robin Teague's home. A full day out climbing up St Michael's Mount, then round to Land's End and St Ives ending up with an ice-cream and a paddle at Godrevey. All plus hosts ventured to the pub again to enjoy a meal together.

Pamela Bousfield entertained them well at her home for coffee on what should have been their last day in St Breward, then it was a taste of keep fit with the Ladies Exercise Group. Afterwards a chance to put on calories at East Rose Farm's cream teas! They were so sad then to hear that they would not be going to London due to the bombs. A hard decision to make but of course their safety was of paramount importance. But thank heavens for St Breward people – two came to the rescue for accommodation for two ladies, and we were able to enjoy their wish of a last day at the seaside at Looe, a visit to a supermarket and then a surprise large dairy farm on the way home.

It was an excited group that took off to Heathrow enjoying Stonehenge on the way. Tokka almost decided to stay and was very sad about leaving us, but most of all they all said that they had found "Paradise" here in St Breward and North Cornwall which is a tribute to all of you who gave your time and went out of your way to say hello to six courageous women from Turkmenistan.

Rebecca Rose Chairman

When War came to St Breward

It was on a sunny Thursday in August 1942 that my neighbour Mrs Arthur Hawken of Rose Cottage, De Lank and I (Grace Masters) decided to go for a walk. We had just reached as far as De Lank Farm gate, stopping to view Wenford in the distance when the noise of approaching aircraft came nearer and nearer. Suddenly, in front of us, skimming the hedge of 4-door field behind the home of Mrs D Yeo came two enemy airplanes clearly marked with the black swastikas. Firing indiscriminately they flew over our homes and turned towards the village.

At Limbhead corner the cottage of Mrs Sandy Nankivell was hit. Kitty Woods the little evacuee could be seen in the partially demolished bedroom. The next cottage (now Edgehill) then lived in by Mr & Mrs Stephen Hawken, the carpenters and coffin makers, was destroyed, as was the cottage on Coombe Road occupied by Mr Sam Parr. Fortunately no occupants were injured.

The two planes firing all the way up Limbhead blasted many windows and doors until finally bombs fell and destroyed the fine granite Methodist Sunday School. Several children were playing in the base of this building and one little boy, Roland Skinner, aged about ten years died later in Truro Infirmary from injuries received. Another little boy picked his way out of the debris saying, "Be us dead?"

The cottages opposite and adjacent to the Sunday School, built of granite withstood the blast but dust covered everything.

For weeks after the attack, the houses still carried the scars of the bullets, as windows were replaced with opaque glass and doors were boarded up.

What a blessing the bombing did not take place the previous Thursday, for on that day the Sunday School was packed with villagers and evacuees for a special concert.

St Breward Gardening Club

Our Gardening Club started the Carnival Week celebrations in grand style by holding a successful Scenic Walk and Garden Tour on the afternoon of Sunday 26th June.

This event was well attended and our walkers enjoyed The Memorial Hall teas and the art exhibition after their exertions – our St Breward footpaths are well known for their wonderful views and with the bonus of private gardens to explore who could resist?

A sincere thank you to everyone involved. Our gardening club helpers and those who opened their gardens did so with much enthusiasm and not a little effort – as usual the commitment to our village is outstanding.

On the evening of Thursday 25th August we will visit Tresillian Estate Gardens near Newquay when Mr John Harris will give us a conducted tour around the famous walled garden and surrounding areas. Please ring Jackie to book your seat on the Community Bus – all welcome.

For our September meeting we return to the Memorial Hall for an excellent evenings entertainment and gardening guidance with our own Gardeners Question Time and Mr Ken Willcock . Then in October we have Mr Graham Sutton, chairman of Cornwall Wildlife Trust, who will talk to us about the Natural history of North Cornwall, Maer Lake and plants, birds and insects. November brings about our AGM!

BLISLAND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION
Blisland's new Amenity Centre

So you have noticed that builders have moved onto our site for the Amenity Centre and at long last work is underway. You should see the building taking shape through the months leading up to Christmas 2005, and be able to use the PO & shop early in 2006. So perhaps now is the time to remind you about our Village project.

Did you know: -

1. The project started in late 1999.
2. Since then the project has been sustained through the dedicated team of volunteers who serve in the temporary PO & Shop currently Jenny Baker, Norma Ludgate, Margaret Marshall, Pam Miller, Angela Steed, Maggie Stirling, Mary Taylor, Len Dingley, Mike Triggs, Colin Vollens.
3. The village has fund raised over £50,000 toward the project.
4. The Stooges (Mavis Miles, Shirley Runnalls, Elaine Scantlebury) have raised over £20,000 of this total.
5. Every penny paid to the Post Office & Shop has been added to the project's funding including the Post Office salary
6. Post Office and Shop income has been boosted by the large numbers of items and produce donated by a variety of people, too many to list here.
7. Further funds have been donated by locals and visitors alike, and by a number of additional activities in and outside Blisland
8. We have been awarded grants to nearly £500,000.
9. There has been no precept charge for the project on the local Council Tax-payer.

The Virginia Cholmeley Memorial Fund

Following the recent untimely death of Virginia, some of her friends have decided to raise money to purchase a cup which will be presented at the Royal Cornwall Show as a memorial to her.

Virginia was a great horse lover throughout her life and contributed in so many ways to assist various societies as well as competing herself.

So many of our lives have been enhanced by our friendship with Virginia and she will be sadly missed both locally and in the equestrian world.

If you wish to contribute to the memorial fund, please send your donation to treasurer, Mrs Hazel Fuller, Laurozel, Tresinney, Advent, Camelford, PL32 9QW (01840 212338). Alternatively, contact secretary, Jackie Greengrass, Bolts Quarry Farm, Penvorder Lane, St Breward PL30 4NY (01208 851592)

Thank you.

Topsy Turvy Shed

Noel Smith had been busy from early morning erecting his new shed, which had been a birthday present from his family.

In the afternoon, Mary his wife arrived home from work and was surprised to see that he hadn't made much progress. In fact it looked as though he had just begun to put the shed kit together.

What she didn't realise was that Noel had set to with gusto, levelled and prepared a base, screwed all four sides of the shed together, placed this on the base and then attempted to put the roof in place. Look as he may, he couldn't see how the roof fitted onto the tops of the walls, so DIY expert Noel then decided to look at the instructions to see how it fitted. On opening the plastic bag and taking out the instructions, he was puzzled to read that there were supposed to be slots in the top of the shed walls for the roof to fit into.

There didn't appear to be any slots in the top of the sides but a closer inspection of the instructions made Noel realise that he had screwed the sides together upside down and the missing slots were pointing earthwards.

He had just taken the sides apart and reaffixed the panels the right way up when Mary arrived. History does not record what excuse he gave to Mary, he certainly didn't admit to NOT READING THE INSTRUCTION BEFORE STARTING.

Micky Harris told me that any DIY'er worth his salt knew that this was the first rule of DIY.

St Breward Art Groups

On behalf of the St Breward Art Groups John Francis and I would like to thank everyone who participated in and visited the art exhibition at the Memorial Hall during carnival week.

This year we opened the exhibition to children in different age groups from 0 - 15 yrs and we were encouraged by the number of entries received and by the high standard of work, so much so that Shannon Mead sold her picture as soon as the display opened. We're now recruiting her as a tutor!

We had great contributions from Surestart, the Nursery school and 23 individual artists contributing over 30 exhibits. WELL DONE and THANKYOU. We apologize if there was any confusion over the event but it was difficult to gauge what response we might get from the children. However in view of the success this year we will endeavour to provide better information next year. We are indebted to the Gardening Club who provided the refreshments in the upper hall during their Safari / Plant sale which certainly "pulls" people in to rest, enjoy a cup of tea and leisurely view our paintings.

Lastly a special thanks to John Francis who not only supplied the display stands but also did much of the background work for the event.

North Cornwall National Trust Association.

Over the summer months, our activities have taken to the great outdoors, with three very successful outings.
Our first event was an evening walk around Boscastle, led by Ian Kemp, who is the National Trust Property Manager for North Cornwall. His area includes Boscastle and he was actually in the village on that never to-be- forgotten day last August.

Consequently we were able to gain a great deal of information not only about the day itself, but also the immediate aftermath and the repairs and restoration that were necessary. One of the more surprising aspects of the evening was the short walk up the Valency valley to see the changes wrought by the river on that day - trees uprooted, new channels cut out and the increased width of the whole river bed in several places.

The walk was such a success that we had to limit the numbers. Ian kindly offered to lead a second walk in September. That too is now fully booked.

A glorious June morning saw about 25 of our members on a circular walk from Polzeath, around Pentire Head and the Rumps, before returning to a most welcome pub lunch. This walk was led by Derek Lord, who is the National Trust warden for that area. All who went gained a great deal from Derek's knowledge of the landscape, along with its plants and birds.

The sun continued to shine on us for our last summer outing, with a coach load of 42 members enjoying a superb matinee performance at the Minack theatre watching a production of "La Boheme" by Beaufort Opera. A great day out and fully appreciated by all who went.

September sees our 2005-6 winter programme under way - starting with an illustrated talk on Lighthouses by Alan Cox. I believe the accompanying slides are wonderful. This meeting is on Friday 16th September, at Wadebridge Town Hall, beginning at 7.00pm.

Tempted to join us? Ring our Membership Secretary, Jane Windeler, on 01208 863548, for more details.

Memory Class
An elderly couple had been experiencing declining memories, so they decided to take a power memory class where one is taught to remember things by association. A few days after the class, the old man was outside talking with his neighbour about how much the class helped him. "What was the name of the Instructor?" asked the neighbour.
"Oh, ummmm, let's see," the old man pondered. "You know that flower, you know, the one that smells really nice but has those prickly thorns, what's that flower's name?"
"A rose?" asked the neighbour.
"Yes, that's it," replied the old man. He then turned toward his house and shouted, "Hey, Rose, what's the name of the teacher we took the memory class from?"

Blisland Gardening Club – outing to Boconnoc House and Gardens

Twenty members of Blisland Gardening Club met at the village hall on a warm June morning and set off for a memorable day out at Boconnoc House. On arrival we were greeted and treated to a welcoming cup of coffee followed by an introduction to the house, the grounds and the various families who have owned the properties since Norman times. Andrew Hood, a local historian took us through this with a fund of amusing anecdotes.

Boconnoc has Norman antecedents, royal connections with King Charles the First who had his headquarters at the house during the Battle of Lostwithiel, and attended service at the church in August 1644. The attractive Charles I coat of arms in the chapel is a rarity in Cornwall. Later links are to two Pitts and Lord Grenville, all Prime Ministers in their time.

Boconnoc is, of course, host to the Cornwall Spring Flower Show, but is also hosting, this year, a steam fair, a VE/VJ day celebration and a performance of Romeo and Juliet in the gardens.

A trip around the 20 acre garden was taken before lunch to avoid the threatened rain. The vast Tulip tree had just come into flower as well as some rare and unnamed rambling roses. We admired a 140 year old Azalea some 25 to 30 feet across, a large Cedar and of course many Rhododendrons and Camellias which were sadly mostly over. The siting of some of the trees makes them vulnerable to the high winds we experience from time to time in North Cornwall and the garden has lost some specimens recently. We were intrigued by a large stone bath, reputedly once owned by Lady Hamilton, as well as many other interesting fountains, trees, plants and shrubs. There was just so much to see that our two-hour tour just flew by.

After an excellent lunch, we set off to tour the house, which is undergoing extensive restoration under the watchful eye of our host, owner Anthony Fortescue, who also makes fine furniture. We were able to have a "behind the scenes" look at how replacement plaster mouldings are fashioned and made. We were able to view the lath and plaster construction of the old walls and see the problems encountered in making such a building safe, which has meant they have had to pull down part of one wing. This is not a job for the faint-hearted, but one in which it is clear Anthony and his wife Elizabeth are fully committed, enthusiastic and justifiably proud of their achievements. They were delightful hosts for the day.

After a cream tea, and many murmurings of appreciation and thanks for an excellent and informative day, we set of for home. We would recommend this as a day out for any local club.

A loan to help with Christmas?

In the July edition of the Parish magazine it was reported that the North Cornwall Credit Union now has FSA (Financial Services Authority) approval to take savings and issue loans and will have a collection point in St Breward.

Now more good news! They have decided to open a Savings Scheme in Mid August prior to full opening on 1st October 2005. After 13 weeks of regular saving members will qualify to apply for a loan of up to 3 times the accumulated value of their savings. That's just in time for Christmas! Repayments can be made over up to 12 months and only 1% interest is charged on the outstanding part of the loan.

That means for example:

- £100 saved over 13 weeks = £100
- Loan available after 13 weeks = £300
- Monthly repayment over 12 months = £9.06 monthly
- Total cost of loan = £6.45
- Therefore total repayable = £106.45

And if you pay the loan back quicker it will be even cheaper!!!

What's more you will become a member of North Cornwall Credit Union, the latest development in a movement long established in Ireland, America, Australia and many other parts of the world.

Watch the village Notice Boards for the time and place of the first collection in Mid August or ring Denis Lusby on 850260 or Mike Jones on 850089 for more information.

Join the North Cornwall Credit Union now – a not for profit organization serving local people and run by local people. Keep our money in Cornwall.
For secure savings and low cost loans join us today!

Dave Hill & the editor were sitting on the bench outside the shop enjoying the summer sun on their faces and having a quiet conversation about the lack of parking in Row. It was a fairly peaceful scene, swifts were flying round the block screaming occasionally as they consumed their high speed lunch, a couple of doves sat cooing quietly on the phone wires in front of Mrs Brown's house, up from the shop Doreen Kay could be seen cutting her hedge with electric clippers.

This scene of rural peacefulness was interrupted with the shouts of Joe issuing instructions to Doreen on how to cut the hedge. Dave said, "I don't know why Joe doesn't let Doreen get on with it. She should tell him to do the job himself." No sooner had Dave spoken when a sudden hush descended over Row, the swifts flew off, the doves shut up and Doreen's hedge clippers were silent with hedge half finished.

Distracted by all the instructions Doreen had trimmed the cable as well as the hedge; Joe ceased to shout instructions and life in Row returned to its even tenor.

Another Success For St Breward Carnival

St Breward staged yet another impressive Carnival on Saturday 2nd July, concluding the Committee's busy year of planning, organising, cajoling, and nail-biting to the last day on what the weather would do! Together with the full pre-carnival week of village events and activities, 2005's Carnival proved yet again that St Breward village has an annual event to be very proud of.

St Breward Brownies

With the weather remaining dry and the sun at last showing itself, the procession, traditionally led by the North Cornwall Foxhounds, displayed colour, creativity, music and enjoyment in all its entries. Music was provided by the village's own St Breward Silver Band, Wadebridge Town Band, a local Jazz Band and topped by Bideford Youth Pipe Band - there was continuous foot-tapping for all tastes, from the registration point to the concluding prize-giving.

St Breward's Carnival Queen, Samantha Champion, and her attendants Katie Storr and Anna Cornelius, led the other Royalty teams entered by surrounding villages and towns. The procession contained numerous walkers, floats and groups, as well as vintage and classic car entries, all finishing their routE at St Breward Football Club. The winners of each class were:

Best Senior Queen & Attendants: Camelford
Best Fairy Queen & Attendants: Delabole
Best Decorated Royal Vehicle: Delabole
Best Walking Wheeled Entry: The Flying Scotsman (Lauren Martin)
Best Junior Float: Big Cook, Little Cook (Harper/Colman family)
Best Senior Float: The Red Army (St Breward AFC Sunday Team)
Best Mixed Float: Coca-Cola Crew (Joe Hill & Co)
Open Walking Group: 3 Blind Mice (Clark, Baron & Co)

Following the prize giving hosted by Carnival President Trevor Ternouth, the villagers were entertained by the Cornish group Blue Slate in a marquee at the Football Club, with revelry lasting well into the late hours.

The Carnival Committee's Chairman, Joe Kay, concluded, "This has been another wonderful evening. I am so proud of this village and the Committee, as we have all enjoyed such a successful Carnival". Preparations will soon be underway for St Breward Carnival 2006, so make a note of the date in your diary, Saturday 1st July 2006. "See You There!"

St Breward WI July 12th 2005

The wish for a sunny day was certainly granted when members gathered in Mrs Paddy Powell's garden for a celebration lunch, with temperatures in the 80's. After perusing the items on the 'Bring and Buy' stall we all enjoyed an excellent salad lunch followed by a choice of cold sweets and tea or coffee; all the food had been prepared by our committee to whom we owe a big thank you for toiling in such heat on our behalf.

The play, "The Book Club" written by Christine Woolf was then performed outside on the grass by Guen Daws, Margaret Shelley, Yvonne Nobbs and Christine herself; depicting avid readers performing snippets of books they would like to read in future. This play will be performed in the Methodist Hall for the Truro Disabled on the 14th of July, hopefully in cooler circumstances!

The Group Meeting postponed due to very bad weather will take place on July 14th at Cardinham, not at Blisland as planned as their decorations are not quite finished; by the time this is published several will have attended by car.

Also the visit to the Bodmin Recycling Centre will have taken place; this seems to be a popular outing- we all want to know what actually what happens to the items we struggle so diligently to gather and bag up!

Our WI have given half of our receipts from our Carnival events to the Carnival Funds, and several have participated in events organized by others, especially the Wine and Wisdom, and Skittles.

New up-to-date WI information leaflets have been produced to hand to newcomers to the village to welcome them to the various clubs and services that take place on a regular basis. WI members are allocated a particular area and will take a leaflet if Mrs Pamela Bousfield is informed so that she can supply one to our member.

The competition for a sun hat (most suitable for the weather!) was won by Mrs Rosemary Lowe with a clever petal effect, with Mrs Muriel Wilton and Mrs Anne Holmes tied for second place.
The table decoration was won by Mrs Wilton, with Mrs P Bousfield second.

The speaker for August 9th at 7.15pm will be Doreen Cooper about textiles, and the competition is for a small handmade item using textiles, and the flower of the month will give a lot to choose from.
