Editorial You cannot teach an old dog new tricks, so as 2005 draws to a close, this edition joins the others that were late. No apologies - lots of unexpected things happened to divert my energies—not least last Friday's snowfall. I hope you enjoy the magazine. I am still chuckling over the 'ship talk' story—I can just imagine it happening. I hope Memories of Childhood evokes the same strong mental image of Christmas in 1921 Falmouth, as it did to me.

I also hope you enjoyed all of 2005's editions. I try to include as much variation as possible. I would like to thank all my contributors, regular or otherwise, especially Peter Glaser with his endless supply of photos (or should that be 'just in time?' Thank you, all you patient readers. Happy Christmas & a Prosperous New Year to you all. I leave you with an Irish toast

May you have the hindsight to know where you've been.

I can't believe how quickly time has flown since our move to this beautiful group of parishes. It already feels very much like home and we are so enjoying being here amongst such a friendly and active group of people. It's unbelievable how much goes on here. There's certainly a very full programme of events in the communities and especially in the churches over the Christmas period, and I so look forward to sharing all of that with you. Apologies in advance if my own demanding schedule means I have to miss something. It's not intentional.

I think that there is no better place to be at Christmas than in the country, where the seasons are so much more obviously marked (even with global warming) and where we can revel in the glorious Christmas traditions. We are so fortunate to have our lives blessed by the variety of our seasons and the seasons of the church's year. There is always something different for us to enjoy, if we take the time to reflect upon it. With the frantic preparation of presents, food, beds for guests etc... and for me sermons and services as well, it's easy to find the excuse that we didn't have time to look around or to pause for thought. What a waste that would be when there is so be grateful for.

The celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ, is a special reminder to us of God's love that came into the world in the form of a human baby. Since that time, over 2,000 years ago we are reminded annually of how different life can be when we take that love into our hearts and, more importantly, learn how to share it with others. Even in the busyness, Christmas does at least remind us that other people exist, as we make contact with friends old and new.

The festive season can also be a time of sadness, as we bring to mind people we might have lost, or lost contact with. Loss seems extra poignant at this time of year when it feels as though everyone else is celebrating and problems are magnified. It's even more important then, to acknowledge Christ's promise that however lost or alone we feel, he will never leave or forsake us. In fact, one of the names given to him is Emmanuel, which means literally: "God with us".

Whatever your circumstances may you take time to realise the Lord's presence in your heart and in your home this Christmastime.

Wishing you joy at Christmas and peace in the New Year.

Dear friends,

I have recently been doing a study of some of Jesus' parables and today, thinking about Christmas, the Parable of the Mustard seed comes to mind. Mark says the kingdom of heaven of God,

> "Is like a tiny mustard seed. Though it is one of the smallest of seeds, it grows to become one of the largest of plants, with long branches where birds can come and find shelter."

The mustard seed was used in other ways in Old Testament times to illustrate how small something can be, probably because, in a time with no microscopes, the mustard seed would have been the smallest thing people could readily associate with. I guess it was used in a similar way to our own phrase "a drop in the ocean".

The mustard seed makes me think of the tiny baby that was born in Bethlehem who grew to be a man of great importance. So much so that more than 2,000 years later we still read of Jesus' teaching and try to learn from it.

So important was he that from himself alone grew a world-wide community of Christian people which continues to grow and spread in virtually every country of the world, except in England where our church membership continues to decline in number and age in all but a few churches. I wonder why this is. Is it because we are not familiar with the mustard seed and tree? Has the time come to emulate TV producers and writers who are giving Shakespeare a new look? I'm all in favour of using up to date images to portray the gospel message; yet what would we use to replace the mustard seed which can similarly grow naturally into something huge?

Having sat musing for several minutes I can find no alternatives although I'm sure there are brainy people out there who can, if so I'd love to hear them. But while you are pondering the question remember what it was that began the quest: a tiny baby, born in a stable, whose kingdom continues to grow and spread 2,000 years later.

Surely a birthday well worth celebrating.

Happy Christmas to you all.
Stella.

St Breward Baby and Toddler Group

The St Breward Baby and Toddler Group will be self-funding and 'going it alone' from 2006 and thanks must go to SureStart, the Government initiative for babies and toddlers, for their invaluable help in getting the Group up and running.

The Group will be run by a Committee made up from the parents and carers of children who attend the weekly Monday afternoon meetings held in the Village Hall, and Caroline Ralph, the Play Leader.

Although the Group owns some toys and equipment – and SureStart has kindly donated a very generous amount – there are still a number of items that are needed. The children have helped Caroline compile a 'wish list' and we are hoping that our neighbours in the Parishes may be able to help us acquire some of these items.

The children would like :

Art Materials, such as Washable Ink Pads, Coloured Card, Chalks and Chalk Boards
Games and Puzzles such as Life Cycle Puzzles, Texture Dominoes, Snail Race with Dice

Dressing up clothes

Books such as "Each Peach Pear Plum" by Janet and Allan Ahlberg, "Elmer" by David McKee, the "Hungry Caterpillar Big Book and Accessory Set by Eric Carle

And large play items such as:-
A Giant Abacus, An eight section "Wormy" tunnel, Rugged Play Tunnels

If you are able to donate one of these items, or your children have outgrown some toys that you no longer need and would like to give them to the Group, please contact Tracey Haynes on 01208 851272 and she will arrange to collect them.

Blisland Parish Council (November 2005 Meeting)

The Parish Council held its ordinary meeting on Thursday 10th November where there were nine Parish Councillors, County Councillor David Bryant and two members of the Public present. District Councillor David Miller sent his apologies.

From the floor the subject of road sweeping was raised, principally focusing upon the roads outside the 30 mph zone. These are the responsibility of County Council. David Bryant gave useful information on how to get Highways attention to this problem. The meeting continued with a written report from Community Police Officer PC Bryan Rice, advising no reported crime during the preceding month. There were no planning decisions and just two planning applications, both for Tregenna Farm. The retention of a new timber building as garage, stable and office with studio rooms over, was supported by 5 votes with 3 abstentions; the change of use (retrospective) of existing redundant farm outbuildings to use for the manufacture of timber buildings was unanimously supported. The Clerk advised that on second submission, the request for funding support from NCDC to the improvement of Blisland's Public Toilets was not accepted. The Parish Council will now explore lottery funding during the early part of next financial year. The Chairman reported that the Parish Plan was with the printers and should be delivered to all households later in November. Pot holes beside the road across Manor Common have been a problem for some time. Resolution of this problem has been with Highways who have encountered problems with filling these with suitable material acceptable to English Heritage. County Councillor David Bryant advised that a temporary solution had now been established and improvements should be in place later in the year. It was agreed to proceed with the purchase of a new mortise lock with 6 keys for the Institute. It was also agreed to hold an extraordinary meeting on Wednesday 23rd November to consider North Cornwall's Local Development Framework – Core Strategy.

The meeting closed after $1^{3}/_{4}$ hours

Thanks to everyone who supported our Coffee Morning – we realised the magnificent sum of £523 towards the extraction unit.

Fund raising is progressing well with an award of £500 from the Carnival Committee, £300 from Radio Cornwall and £300 from the Parish Council.

We hope to have the first phase of the work completed during December.

Thank you all.

Torquay Triumph

St Breward Silver Band was triumphant at the 59th Annual Championships of the South West Brass Band Association held at the Riviera Centre, Torquay on the 5th November. They entered the 4th Section playing the test piece "Mexican Fiesta" by Richard Hanmer under the baton of Darren Hawken.

Darren (21) is studying at The Royal Welsh School of Music & Drama for his music degree of which he is in his 3rd year. This was his first time conducting on a contest stage as St Breward's resident Musical Director, Aaron Harvey, was away on business.

There were 8 bands in the 4th Section. St Breward Band was drawn to play first, which didn't leave any time for nerves to take over. They played their hearts out and finished to loud cheers and applause from the audience, all the soloist's taking a bow. The 4th Section was followed by the Junior Section. The adjudicator Mr. Roy Sparkes spoke briefly before the results were given out and congratulated the winning band on their interpretation of the test piece. The Bands and their supporters gathered in the auditorium for the results, which were as follows:

1st	St Breward Silver	180 pts
2nd	Sidmouth Town	178 pts
3rd	Hatherleigh	176 pts

The Band Manager, Mr. Robin Teague, was presented with the South Hams Cup for the winning band, St Breward also won the Jim Barber cup for the best set of basses and this was presented to Stephen Old. The Conductor also received a cup and personal Trophy and each member of the Band received an engraved medal to remind them of their triumph at Torquay 2005, which will be presented to the players at our Music for Christmas Concert on Sunday 18th in the Chapel. This evening of frivolity will include for the 3rd year running St Breward Brownies & Guides and not forgetting the Xmas Hat competition, which has been won for the previous 2 years by John Woolf. Lets hope he has a creative block this year and gives the rest of us a chance at the title! Father Christmas will not be attending this year for reasons you will have read about last month.

Our AGM on the 12th is one of the most important for several years being that we have several positions to fill including PRO, FOTB Coordinator and Chair.

Discussions this year will focus mainly on fundraising for new uniforms. We had provisionally booked our return back to our old St Breward colours back in the summer but were unable to fund them completely due to the inclement weather at Music By The River.

Anyone wishing to help in any way on our committees please contact us though our website www.stbrewardband.com. We are all looking forward to playing at Psst! Fancy pulling a few strings?

A group is being formed (very much in the embryo stage!) with a current membership of one, to establish in St Breward, a Marionette Theatre.

It is hoped and envisaged that a first performance could be ready to coincide with Carnival Week.

Are you interested in art & craft, woodwork, making dolls clothes, drama (for puppetry in general and marionettes in particular, music, stage lighting or being a stagehand to make and establish the props? If you fancy being involved in Cornwall's Highest marionette theatre please contact John Francis at 'Farthings', Churchtown or on 01208 851680.

BLISLAND PAST

Many thanks to all of you who have bought the Blisland Past booklets; they are still obtainable from me. I had twelve editions printed to which I must say a grateful thank you to Peter Corney for printing them and his help.

So far £156 has been donated to both the Blisland Village Hall and also towards the new Shop, Post Office and Doctors Surgery.

I am in the process of collecting people's memories of life in Blisland village, so I would be very grateful of any stories. It would be a great shame to loose those memories as life has changed so much these last years. So far I have been given a number including one from an evacuee so if any one out there knows any more evacuees who you think would be kind enough to write their memories please get in touch with them.

Again I would donate all monies to Blisland village.

Blisland Formally Reopens its Village Hall with a Big Bang

Well not exactly, true the reopening ceremony took place on November 5th but there were no fireworks, however there were a number of excellent Guys on display made by some of Blisland's Children. The Hall was officially reopened at 11.30 am on Saturday 5th November 2005 by Brigadier Edward-Collins, Mrs Rosa Billings and Mrs. Marjorie Webber, all who were present 76 years ago at the original opening on 23rd October 1929. The reopening day was chosen to coincide with the National Lottery Day in recognition of the Lottery's support as principle funder. Thanks also go to NCDC, Sure Start, Blisland Parish Council for their funding support and to our many supporters who have helped raise the Communities contribution to the regeneration cost.

After the opening ceremony there was a fantastic lunch which was followed by the judging of the Guys. This was won by Emma Irons with cousin Josh and the Pengelly children Jordan, Deanna and Louis. For most of the day in the new Committee room there was an excellent art display by artists drawn largely from our Parish. On the stage a 45 minute slide show ran continuously in a loop showing the original opening of the Village Hall, the building of the extensions and photographs from around the Parish. Cream tea was served during the afternoon and the day was topped out by a Cornish Evening of Pasties, Saffron cake and Entertainment. Everyone was delighted with the improvements to the Hall which should certainly see it through the next 76 years.

St Breward Primary School & Nursery

Our Harvest Assembly raised a total of £89, which the children of Class 3 have decided to donate to Cancer Research. Thanks to all who attended and helped make up the marvellous raffle hampers.

Nursery News

Incredibly, we are already starting week 4 of this half term. This week sees the start of 'Christmas' preparations. We will be looking through recipe books for suitable delicacies to cook and will be printing our own wrapping paper and practising making repeat patterns. As our topic this half term is food, the children have already planned and made food for our valued teddy, "Charlie Chatsworth".

We were all fascinated to watch Mr Brewer have his hair cut off and the children found this experience highly amusing! (see Children in Need) That's all for this time, except to say that Gabby Waters, Nursery Assistant, has been with us now for 9 weeks and the children have adopted her completely. She has quickly become a valued member of the team.

Christmas Play

Our Annual production is well into rehearsals now and Mr & Mrs Brewer have achieved the impossible again and made it even better than last year! The costumes and dances are fantastic! The dress rehearsal will be on Monday 12th December at 1.30pm and we ask that you bring your little ones to this performance and not the evening ones. The children have worked so hard on this play that it would be a shame if they had to compete with tiny tantrums! The evening performances are on Tuesday 13th and Wednesday 14th December, in the Chapel at 6.30pm all dressed up to raise money for Children in Need. The pinnacle of this day was when Hayley got Mr Brewer in the chair and chopped off his long hair! Opinion is now divided as to whether he looks more handsome or not!! He certainly looks younger! This brave feat raised over £200.00 and added to the voluntary donations we received from the fancy dress, a sizeable sum been sent to the Children in Need Appeal.

Cinderella

It has become a custom that we take the children from class 2 and class 3 to the cinema to see the new Harry Potter film. Unfortunately, we cannot do it this year as the film is a little darker than before and has therefore been classed a 12A. However, it was decided that the whole school including the nursery children will go to see a production of Cinderella on 15th December in Camelford, courtesy of the funds raised by the Carnival Committee.

Class One Sale

On Friday 25th November, we held our once-a-term class sale to raise much-needed funds for extras. Thanks to all who attended and donated prizes for the raffle, cakes and biscuits for the refreshments and other assorted sale items. We raised lots of money again, which is just brilliant considering how close to Christmas we are. We have a very generous village community, thank you.

Class Three Writing

The children were asked to consider the attributes of our school and write a piece that would encourage parents to send their children here. This is what Hattie Levers wrote:

St Breward School and Nursery

Introduction

St Breward Primary School is a lovely school, which is over looked by trees. There is a lovely view of the village from the field. There are three classes, all welcoming and peaceful for your children. There are fifty-eight pupils, (not including the Nursery) and all of the children are very sweet and friendly and good at looking after each other.

The Teachers

All of the teachers are very understanding and kind and always looking out for your children. The headmistress is Mrs King and she also teaches class two. Mrs Thomas is a super teacher for class one. Mr & Mrs Brewer are groovy teachers for class three. There is also a music teacher called Mrs Robinson. All of the teachers are helped by loving staff.

Village Bus

There is a village bus available for your children. If you are at work and there is no one to pick your children up, they can use the bus. It costs 50p for a ride to school and back again.

Lunchtime

We have our lunch at five past twelve in the hall. Your children can have a packed lunch or a school dinner. There are different meals every day.

The Christmas Play

Every year we hold a Christmas play and all the pupils perform. It is normally held in the chapel. The teachers and staff help make the costumes and sometimes parents help out. Father Christmas and the elves are always in the play and there are always lots of dances.

Conclusion

The school setting, in the centre of the friendly village of St Breward, creates a peaceful and safe environment to work and play in. The five teachers are helpful and caring towards the pupils, who in turn, are well behaved and welcoming to new children. There is a choice of food at lunchtime for people who eat school meals and fruit is provided for everyone in class one at morning break time. I do hope you will send your children to this delightful school because if you do, I know they will enjoy coming here.

Finally.....

We have had around 100 copies of Yellow Pages so far and need 100s more. Please badger your relatives and work places for their old ones. We have had some from London and some from Leicester – anywhere will do! We only have until the end of February(ish) to collect them so please start now. You can leave them at school or at St Breward Stores or ring 851294 for a collection if you can't deliver them.

As you slide down the banisters of life may the splinters never point the wrong way.

Memories of a Child's Christmas

It was after the end of the Great War, when my father was still convalescing from serious head injuries received when the gun he was manning was blown up, that we were together as a family after five years. The date 1921, the place FALMOUTH, I was 7 years old, brothers – Leighton 9 years and Francis 11 years. The preparation for Christmas began on the eve of Advent. Mother always mixed her mincemeat in time for Stir up Sunday, so called because the Collect for advent Sunday begins, "Stir up we beseech thee O Lord the hearts and wills of thy faithful people."

The large bowl of mincemeat was placed on the kitchen table and each one had to stir the mixture, whilst at the same time throw into it a previously sterilized silver threepenny bit. Then the mincemeat was divided into white bowls, which had ridged rims enabling the string to be tied tightly around the cloth covers. The two opposite corners of cloth were tied together enabling the bowls to be lifted in and out of the copper boiler when cooked.

It was four weeks to wait for Christmas Day, times were austere after that terrible war and there was very little money to spend or exciting events or amusements like there are to-day. No TV or radio, each family made its own pleasure and we played cards such as happy families, old maid, rummy etc. We had no comics but read the children's Newspaper.

During Christmas week we did go into the town to see the shops. At the big store, 'Spooners' there was a grotto with Father Christmas, and a few streamers and balloons decorated the town.

At home my father would make a list of things to buy for the festive season. Two or three times in the last week he would suddenly announce, "Now we will revise the list" – out would come this sheet of paper much to our delight, always with the same three items at the top:

1 oz of St Bruno tobacco for his pipe
8 ozs of Nuttall's Mintoes for mother
And a half pound slab of Cadbury's milk chocolate for we three children.

The usual box of dates with its picture of palm trees and a native boy on the cover, a hand of Canary bananas (10 for a shilling – 5p) and an assortment of nuts, monkey nuts still in their shells, hazel and walnuts and chestnuts to roast on the trivet by the fire.

That year 1921 it was decided to spend Christmas with my paternal Grandmother Fittock who lived with her daughter, Aunty Nora – Grandma had a big Victorian house, three storeys and an attic that covered all the rooms. We children were very excited and each began to sort out what to pack into our individual canvas 'frails.' Father had to take his Gladstone bag, which went everywhere with him and mother packed the biggest Christmas pudding in the wicker basket. At last we set out to walk the half mile to Grandma's. It was strange for me to be walking outside in the evening dusk. I was fascinated when a man riding a bicycle and carrying a long pole stopped at each lamppost and with a hook on the end of the pole pulled a ring under the lamp glass and the light came on. He was like Leerie in RL Stevenson's poem 'The Lamplighter.'

Grandma was waiting for us. There was a lovely log fire burning in the dining room, streamers hung from the ceiling and a branch of holly tree in a flower pot acted as a Christmas tree, covered with tinsel and a few baubles.

We went upstairs to unpack our clothes. My brothers were sleeping in the attic. What an exciting place that was. One massive iron bed with brass knobs was filling one side with its feather tic and cover of patchwork quilt. There were cabin trunks, a large chest of drawers, boxes and two domed-shaped glass cases full of brightly coloured little birds. On a table by the window was my late Grandfather's telescope. He had been a Trinity Pilot but died in the flu epidemic of 1916. From this window you looked over the Falmouth harbour and we watched the ships coming and going.

At 7 years old I still believed in Father Christmas and my brothers were dared to say otherwise. So we each hung up our stockings on Christmas Eve. What joy there was on Christmas morning. My stocking held the usual orange, apple, nuts, a few sweets, a packet of coloured crayons and a colouring-in book. The biggest surprise was a little tin box with a handle across the centre and it contained Sharp's toffees.

There was also something wrapped in fancy paper, what could that be? I tore off the paper and stared at a beautiful annual called "Our Darlings." It was the first I had and I read and re-read every story in that lovely book, which I still have in the bookcase. Francis had a Meccano outfit and Leighton had a train set.

Now it was Christmas Day. Father took us to a short service of matins at the mission room while mother stayed to help cook the goose which was the usual fare in those days. At one o' clock the seven of us sat around the big dining table, - my father said the grace and we tucked in to a sumptuous meal. There was more excitement when the Christmas pudding was brought in with the little twig of berried holly stuck in the top, and the hot custard in the Cornish Blue jug. Now for the 'helpings', was I going to be lucky and have a 3^{d} piece in my slice? I honestly cannot remember, but one day I did find a 3^{d} piece in my portion. It seemed a fortune, with one penny I could buy 5 wrapped sweets at the corner shop.

While the grown ups rested or slept after the meal we children amused ourselves with our presents. No one was very hungry at tea time but there was just sufficient appetite to have a mince pie with cream and a slice of Cornish Christmas cake which was mother's home made saffron.

The next day, Boxing Day was spent relatively quietly. Father took us into the park where we watched the 12 black swans which lived there. The boys climbed a few trees and played hide and seek with the other children. There were no swings or slides in those days. Then we were ready to return to Grandma's to enjoy the remnants of yesterday's feast.

Before leaving that evening we had a little sing song. Aunty Nora was a good pianist. We sang some carols and lustily sang the two hits of that time, "If you were the only girl in the world," and "Let the great big world keep turning." So ended our happy Christmas.

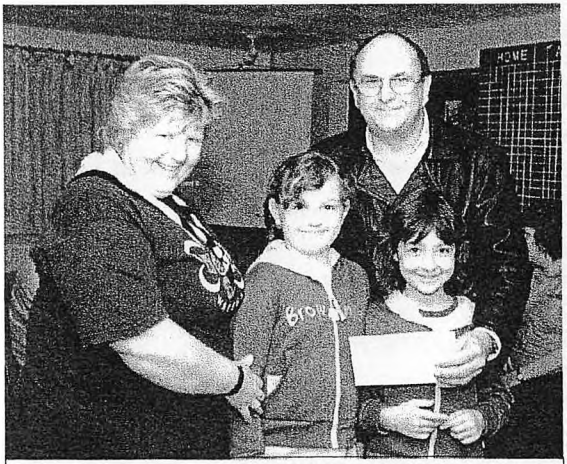
Pat Dibb receiving award and expounding on what needs doing to sort them out at the football club, watched attentively by Carnival Royalty

St Breward village once again excelled itself with a tremendous Carnival 2005 featuring a year of events leading up to the busy Carnival Week and the well attended Procession itself. And, once again, the Carnival Committee were pleased to give back to the village the excess funds raised during the year by holding their now traditional Presentation evening at the St Breward Football Club to a packed audience of representatives of the village's organisations and groups. This year the evening included a projected slideshow of candid photographs taken of Carnival Week and the actual Carnival itself by local photographer, Peter Glaser, bringing back memories of yet another successful event for St Breward.

With £2,000 redistributed around the village, the largest amount was given to the very popular village's Luncheon Club which is needing to update kitchen equipment to comply with new regulations. Other beneficiaries included Friends of the School (£200), Play Areas (£200), Guides (£150), Brownies (£150), Rainbows (£150), St Breward Silver Band (£100), Village Hall (£100), Memorial Hall (£100), Snooker Club (£100), Community Bus (£50), Chapel (£50), Church (£50), Wednesday Club (£50) and the Sunday Club (£50).



Brown Owl, Marilyn Pluess receiving cheque from Carnival President Trevor Ternouth watched by two very happy looking brownies

Carnival Chairman Joe Kay was extremely pleased with this year's efforts, commenting that every year get's better and better and that, with this year's excellent fundraising efforts coupled with the support and generosity of the village residents, additional monies have been put aside to start Carnival 2006 off. If you did just happen to miss this unmissable event this year, diarise NOW next year's St Breward Carnival on Saturday 1st July 2006. See you there!

This is the transcript of the actual radio conversation of a US naval ship with Canadian authorities off the coast of Newfoundland.

Canadians: Please divert your course 15 degrees to South to avoid a collision.

Americans: Recommend you divert your course 15 degrees north to avoid a collision

Canadians: Negative. You will have to divert your course 15 degrees to avoid a collision.

Americans: This is the captain of a US Navy ship. I say again, divert YOUR course.

Canadians: No! I say again you divert YOUR course

Americans: THIS IS THE AIRCRAFT CARRIER USS LINCOLN, THE SECOND LARGEST SHIP IN THE UNITED STATES ATLANTIC FLEET. WE ARE ACCOMPANIED BY THREE DESTROYERS, THREE CRUISERS, AND NUMEROUS SUPPORT VESSELS. I DEMAND THAT YOU CHANGE YOUR COURSE 15 DEGREES NORTH; I SAY AGAIN, THAT'S ONE FIVE DEGREES NORTH, OR COUNTER MEASURES WILL BE UNDERTAKEN TO ENSURE THE SAFETY OF THIS SHIP.

Canadians: This is a lighthouse. Your call.

A blind man enters a Ladies Bar by mistake. He finds his way to a barstool and orders a drink. After sitting there for a while, he yells to the bartender, "Hey, you wanna hear a blonde joke?"

The bar immediately falls absolutely quiet. In a very deep, husky voice, the woman next to him says, "Before you tell that joke, sir, I think it is just fair -- giving that you are blind -- that you should know five things:

1. The bartender is a blonde girl.
2. The bouncer is a blonde girl.
3. I'm a 6 feet tall, 220 lb. blonde woman with a black belt in karate.
4. The woman sitting next to me is blonde and a professional weightlifter.
5. The lady to your right is a blonde and a professional wrestler.

Now think about it seriously, Mister. Do you still wanna tell that joke?

The blind man thinks for a second, shakes his head, and declares, "Nah, not if I'm gonna have to explain it five times."

A little girl was attending a church service with her mother when she started to complain that she was feeling unwell. "I think I need to throw up," said the girl.

"Well, go outside," said the mother, "and use the bushes by the front door of the church."

The little girl went off but was back less than a minute later.
"That was quick," said the mother. "Did you throw up?"
"Yes, but I didn't need to go outside," replied the little girl. "I used a box near the door that says "For the sick."

Thanks to Nosmo for the jokes. I love them. Ed

BLISLAND COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION
Blisland's new Amenity Centre

We suspect that you will have noticed that the roof slating is complete. Work has also started on the stonework and some preparatory work is underway on the roadway and car park. With the roof on then progress will be less dependant on the weather so Contractors ROK will be able to give more accurate dates for the completion of areas of the building. We need this to plan in other services, such as when the Shop fitters can move in to fit out the shop, when the Post Office can put in their facilities, when we should plan for furniture to be delivered etc. There is still considerable work for us to do not just for the builders. Through the years there has been so much work applied to this project by so many people. Those who work in the PO & Shop six mornings a week 52 weeks a year, those who supply items for us to sell to boost our funds, those involved in fund raising, ourselves on the management committee, the consultants from throughout Cornwall who have given us advice and many more. If you know that you are one of those who have helped, then you will know that we are referring to you. Dear Ed,

Congratulations on the quality of the Community Magazine. I find it informative, thought provoking and humorous and must involve a great deal of time and effort on your part.

I believe we residents of St Breward and its environs are very lucky in that we have this, a community bus (largely due to the efforts of Gill & Terry Goode, Christine & Denis Lusby and many others). We have a Post Office run very efficiently and helpfully by friendly people, a shop likewise, an active Neighbourhood Watch organisation and a dedicated First Response team to render first aid in the event of illness or accident etc. We are indeed fortunate.

If you can find time and space to put this in an issue of the magazine, my thanks to all concerned.

Now, on a lighter note:
A group of chess enthusiasts checked into an hotel and were standing in the lobby discussing their recent tournament victories. After about an hour, the manager came out of his office and asked them to disperse.
"But why?" they asked, as they moved off. Because, "he said, "I can't stand chess nuts boasting in an open foyer."

Best wishes,

Leg Work: Dave Hill left work early on snowy Friday, but his car couldn't get up the hill as far as Row, so he returned to De Lank quarry, parked and walked home to Higher Penquite!

But Anthony, Dai, Micky and Peter I cannot see anything wrong with that. I would have done the same. Ed Ah! I see; he was nearly home when he turned back.

That's nearly as bad as Liam Lusby who abandoned his van in Hellend, took his bike out of the back and cycled to St Breward along the Camel Trail. When he arrived home he phoned Bash, who was still in Bodmin, and told him to leave his van there and cycle along the Camel Trail saying—I'll meet you half way. Why didn't he phone him from Helland and wait on the Trail for Bash to arrive? It would have saved his legs.

Morris, an 82 year-old man, went to the doctor to get a physical. A few days later the doctor saw Morris walking down the street with a gorgeous young woman on his arm. A couple of days later the doctor spoke to Morris and said, "You're really doing great, aren't you?"

Morris replied, "Just doing what you said, Doctor: "Get a hot mamma and be cheerful." The doctor said, "I didn't say that. I said, 'You've got a heart murmur. Be careful!'"

MARY'S DREAM

I had a dream, Joseph. I don't understand it, not really, but I think it was about a birthday celebration for our son. I think that was what it was all about. The people had been preparing for it for weeks. They had decorated the house and bought new clothes. They had been out shopping many times and bought elaborate gifts.

It was peculiar, though, because the presents weren't for our son. They wrapped them in beautiful paper and tied them with lovely bows and stacked them under a tree. Yes, a tree, Joseph, right in their house. They'd decorated the tree. The branches were full of glowing balls and sparkling ornaments. There was a figure at the top of the tree. It looked like an angel. Oh, it was so beautiful.

Everyone was laughing and happy. They were all excited about the gifts. They gave the gifts to each other, Joseph, not to our son. I don't think they even knew him. They never mentioned his name. Doesn't it seem odd for people to go to all that trouble to celebrate someone's birthday if they don't know him? I had the strangest feeling that if our son had gone to this celebration he would have been intruding.

Everything was so beautiful, Joseph, and everyone so full of cheer, but it made me want to cry. How sad for Jesus not to be wanted at his own birthday celebration. I'm glad it was only a dream.

How terrible, Joseph, if it had been real.

It was the best of times and not the worst of times at Blisland on 31.10.05. The singing was uplifting; everything else was exceptionally good as we welcomed the Revd Sherry Bryan into our communities. Bishop Roy gave a cracking good sermon on God's call to serve the living Lord. The call to Abraham, Moses, Samuel, Mary and Paul, to name a few.

We were challenged to consider what our call was to fulfil our role to bring the kingdom of God to the places where we were and to the people that we meet. We enjoyed some beautiful singing from the West Gallery Choir, and then to the village hall for some delicious food, the savoury mince was particularly inspirational and gladly enjoyed. Happy memories to store up like seeing and smelling roses in winter as Revd Matt Godfrey ably expressed it at a friend's funeral some time ago. Joy in our hearts, delight at Sherry and Donna settling amongst us and thankfulness at a packed church where the church wardens wands failed to turn us into mice or pumpkins.

Thank you Blisland and everyone. VJ

Blisland News

Theatre comes to Blisland yet again on December 10th at 7.30pm in the Village Hall. Back by popular request are those 'ladies of a certain age' – 'Dangerous Curves.' They will be presenting 'Stocking Fillers,' a sparkling show that takes a dry and rather wry look at the festive period.

The film club's festive offering will be 'The Slipper and the Rose' – a wonderful musical film, now largely forgotten, but not by us. There is a star-studded cast - Richard Chamberlain, Gemma Craven, Michael Hordern, Edith Evans and Margaret Lockwood to name but 5. This will be showing on 17th December at 7.30pm as usual.

November's offering started with a tribute to Ronnie Barker - the famous film 'By the Sea'. What a true artistes he was.... Not a word spoken throughout but so much is understood, Wonderful stuff. We then had a treat for a cold winter's night – the hilarious Inspector Clousseau, 'A Shot In The Dark.' You could certainly see how the infamous character, which we all love still and often mimic, was 'born' in that particular film. Peter Sellers made the part his very own and I'm sure his 'Goon' days had a heavy influence on his whacky humour. Cannot wait for the next one.

Gardening Club

Our next meeting will be held on December 9th at 7.30pm. We are so lucky to have our own highly talented Lorraine Wright who will once again demonstrate for us. This year we will be treated to 'Seasonal Floral Arrangements.' As usual we will be able to create our own arrangement. Lorraine will have items to buy on the night but please bring along some vegetation etc of your own. Tickets are limited, so get in quick.

For any information on any of these events please phone Mary and Bill Pope on 01208 850338.

St Breward WI November 9th 2005

Fourteen members came to the first afternoon meeting of the winter season to be given 25p coupons for Boaster biscuits, plus six packets to be raffled.

Mrs Woolf read out a letter from the Macmillan Nursing Service thanking us for the cheque for over £200 which is sufficient to pay a nurse for a day. This service is a great help and comfort to many people during their lives.

The outings book was sent around to see if anyone would be interested in the Craft for Crafters at Exeter in January but met with little response unfortunately.

As St Breward is in a Group composed of only three institutes we pay a greater amount towards the Annual General Meetings and hope that the letter regarding this will be considered by the Executive. To offset this extra expense our treasurer, Mrs Muriel Wilson, reported a reasonable balance which we hope will be augmented by the raffle and bran tub receipts at our Christmas lunch. Hopefully everyone partaking of the festive fare will to bring two items as suggested.

On Tuesday December 6th members will catch the bus at the shop at 1 pm to go to the Federation Carol Service at St Neot Church at 2pm, this should prove a happy start to the Christmas festivities.

A new venture is Table Tennis in the lower room in the Memorial Hall this seems to be very well supported at a charge of only 50p per head

Our committee requires suggestions for speakers for 2006 - please offer some ideas that can be put forward to add variety to our meetings - nothing can please everyone every time but there are many subjects of interest of to the majority.

Jean Jarvis was our tutor who spoke about the mysterious art of "Iris folding," proceeded to distribute cards, shiny paper and full instructions. The results, some hilarious minutes later were some most attractive cards.

The competition for a pretty handkerchief was won by Anita Webb, with Rosemary Lowe and Irene Alexander second and third.
Rosemary Lowe also won the Remembrance Day Arrangement in a wine glass; Muriel Wilson and Irene Alexander were second and third.
For our December meeting please meet at 12.30 for our lunch, bearing your gifts like the three Kings of Orient!

The members of St. Breward WI send Greetings to all followed by Best Wishes for a very Happy New Year.

Memory Class: An elderly couple had been experiencing declining memories, so they decided to take a power memory class where one is taught to remember things by association. A few days after the class, the old man was outside talking with his neighbour about how much the class helped him. "What was the name of the Instructor?" asked the neighbour.
"Oh, ummmm, let's see," the old man pondered. "You know that flower, you know, the one that smells really nice but has those prickly thorns, what's that flower's name?"
"A rose?" asked the neighbour.
"Yes, that's it," replied the old man. He then turned toward his house and shouted, "Hey, Rose, what's the name of the instructor we took the memory class from?"
